

Day Students Give Tea Today For Mothers

The annual Day Student Mother-Daughter tea was scheduled today from 3:00 to 5:30 p.m. in the day student center.

Mothers of the day students and college faculty members were invited in order to give parents a chance to meet their daughters' professors.

Fay Fuller, chairman of the decoration committee, planned a Fall theme. Bouquets of red and yellow chrysanthemums were used to carry out the color scheme.

Russian tea, open face sandwiches, butterfingers and assorted nuts and mints were served. Ruth McIlroy was chairman of the refreshments committee.

Music was furnished by record. Ann Evans was in charge of the music committee.

On the decorations committee were Jean Hamrick, Doris Faley, Ann Kester, Phyllis Tierney, Nancy Ann Ramsey, Linda March, Mary Bambalis and Norma Jean Hanks.

Members of the invitation committee were Chairman Sara Willard, Audrey Lindley, Elynor Fishel, Joyce Billings, Anna Kathryn Dobson, Elissa Hutson, Ann Hughes, Edith Tesch, Jean Jennings and Sara Long.

Carolyn Patterson, Barbara Hine, Betty Claire Warren, Joyce Goforth, Carmen Johnston, Sally Ann Hudson, Bert Brower and Jan Langley composed the refreshment committee.

Members of the music committee were Ernestine Kapp, Peggy Alderman, Betty Carol Johnson, Lois Hankin, Irma Gatewood and June Williams.

U. N. C. Denies Plan To Release Coach

By Jean Calhoun

Robert A. Fetzter, athletic director at the University of North Carolina, went on record as saying that there was no basis for the rumor that Carl Snavelly, University head football coach, would be released after the Tar Heels end their season with Duke Nov. 24.

He said the athletic council had only recently met and that there had been no mention made of any such action. "There is no basis for newspaper articles stating that our loss to Virginia finished Carl Snavelly as coach for the Tar Heels — (and) I am sure that our coaches and players have the full support of our alumni and students."

However, a very active alumnus said he thought the release of Snavelly had "been in the making for some time, and is about ready to crack, possibly before the Duke game."

Tatum May Replace Snavelly

Jim Tatum, Maryland coach, who has been named No. 1 possibility to fill Snavelly's position if he is released, says that he loves Carolina but has "never expressed any interest in leaving Maryland. It is unfair to me for anyone to say he knows I want to be head coach at North Carolina. It's an assumption."

College officials at Davidson College received with open arms the news that five percent of the net estate, which amounts to $300,000, of Col. J. E. Johnson has been willed to Davidson. Johnson, an alumnus of Davidson, was active in campus activities and graduated in the class of 1914.

Taft at Wake Forest

The Wake Forest College Young Republican Club sponsored an address on their campus by Senator Robert A. Taft, who has recently announced his candidacy for the President of the United States. Taft came to North Carolina primarily to deliver lectures on various college campuses.

On other campuses he was connected with the Weil Lecture Series. He appeared at the University of North Carolina, Duke University, Women's College in Greensboro and Guilford College. The subject of his lectures was "American Foreign Policy".

Head cheerleader of the University of North Carolina, Cy Minett, has been advised by infirmary doctors to resign his post. He was cautioned in the spring of 1950 to "take it easy", and since then he has had two cases of strep throat and has been forced to quit cheering in the middle of a game. Upon his resignation he will recommend to fill his post Durwood "Nose" Jones, who has been referred to as "the best—since Kay Kyser".

Maky's Cartoons Backfire

Don Maky, who is famous at Davidson College for his laundry-

slamming cartoons, received quite a jolt when he opened his laundry package and found his white shirt to be a splotchy blue, void of buttons and with his laundry number written all over the shirt in pencil.

Sheets, towels, pillow cases, T-shirts and underwear were found to have been dyed the same shade of baby blue and also inscribed with the laundry number, X-877.

He quickly made his way to the laundry muttering, "The dyeing vat is mightier than the pen. My wardrobe cannot withstand continued warfare with the laundry. I surrender." The laundry staff laughed with revengeful pleasure as he made his complaint, but promised to replace buttons and remove the bluish tint. Still wearing his "blue clothes" Maky admits that the laundry has quite a sense of humor.

Sophs Defeat Juniors 3-0

The sophomores defeated the juniors 3-0 in the third hockey game of the season yesterday.

The teams seemed well matched at first, the play moving from one end of the field to another. When the first half ended, the score was tied 0-0.

But within the first five minutes of the last half the sophomores moved to their goal, and Jean Shope hit the ball in for the first score. Then Helen Ridgway and Betty McGlaughn each scored for the sophomores, bringing the score to 3-0.

The game was called immediately after the third goal because of darkness.

This was the sophs' second victory, their first game being won from the seniors by default.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 28...

THE OVENBIRD

Past Grand Master of the Royal Order of Gourmets and Raconteurs—our outspoken friend knows how to find the proof of the pudding. Especially such a thing as cigarette mildness! A "quick puff" and a "single sniff" left him hungry for facts. Smokers everywhere have tried the same tests and discovered the one true test of cigarette mildness!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke, on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments. Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .

After all the Mildness Tests . . .
