Army Theme Used For Other Rats

By Eleanor Johnson

Sophomores and freshmen at Salem will be particularly interested in an article from the student publication of Hiwassee College, Madisonville, Tenn. It seems that the scenes during Rat Day at Hiwassee bore a close resemblance to those on the Salem campus. The army theme was carried out even to lying flat on the ground when someone yelled "air raid". Hiwassee added a new touch; the night before Rat Day the hair of the freshmen was braided into at least 30 plaits.

Frank Groseclose, drama student at the University of North Carolina, has been singled out to be awarded a Philip Morris Intercollegiate Acting Competition. The winning of the award means that Groseclose will co-star on a national radio program in the play "Laura" with Linda Darnell. "Scientific snooping" on the campus of a Southern college was conducted to determine what the students talk about. Here are the results:

The Davidsonian has announced the orchestra for Mid-winters. Charlie Spivak has been signed for the dances on Feb. 15 and 16. The president of Pan-Hellenic also considered signing Ray Anthony for Spring Frolics, but since the orchestra is already engaged for the dates, another will be signed.

The Daily Tar Heel published a review of an article that appeared in the January issue of Mademoiselle. Mumford Jones, Harvard professor and president of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, states in his article titled, "Have College Women Let Us Down", that the American college girl "is not one whit interested in the world around her." Mr. Jones finds a "withering away of the sense of intellectual adventure, of individual inquiry among American college women." Also included in the article was the professor's opinion that girls in college believe that security is the end-all of existence. What can we say about that?

Be sure to read the current issue of the New Yorker (can be found in the browsing room of the library) for a hilarious account of cheering as an expression of school spirit.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 31...THE MOUNTAIN GOAT

He thought they were trying to make him the butt-end of a joke when he was asked to judge cigarette mildness with a mere puff of one brand and a quick sniff of another. The fancy foot-work didn't dazzle him! He knew that the pinnacle of pleasure comes from steady smoking... and that there is only one test that gives you enough time to permit conclusive proof. Smokers throughout America have made the same decision!

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...
