

Freshmen Beat Seniors 48-22 In First Game

The freshmen started off their four years of basketball at Salem last Monday night with a smashing victory over the seniors.

Leading throughout the game, they were never seriously threatened by the seniors. The half time score was 31-8 which showed the superiority of the freshmen. Every member of the team saw a good bit of action and there was no real stand out.

Tinkie Millican led the scoring for the winners with 11 points; Jackie Neilson and Allison Long had nine each. For the losers the big gun was Emily Warden who netted thirteen points.

FROSH-JUNIORS, 54-45

Last Tuesday night the freshmen came right back again and whipped the juniors by a 54-45 score. The game, an exciting one which was not decided until almost the end, was a serious affair all the way. The freshmen took a quick five point lead in the opening minutes of the first quarter only to see it diminish almost as quickly. The score was tied at the quarter 11-11.

In the second quarter the juniors, led by Marion Lewis and Emma Sue Larkins went on a scoring spree and built up a nine point lead. The freshmen were not out, however, and had cut the lead down to six by the half, when the score stood 31-25.

In the third quarter the freshmen went on a scoring spree of their own and, led by Tinkie Millican and Jean Currin, they netted 20 points while holding the juniors to seven. This lead was never relinquished and the final score was 54-45.

High scorers for the winners were Millican with 20 points and Currin with 14. However, high for the game was Marion Lewis who had 24. Larkins netted 15.

SOPH-SENIOR, 26-11

The sophomores also walked away with their second game of the season last Tuesday night by winning over the seniors in a low scoring game by a 26-11 count. Team could do much scoring and the score at the end was 2-2.

In the second quarter the sophs started hitting and the half ended 11-6. During the rest of the game they kept increasing their lead, and the final was 26-11.

High for the winners were Jean a piece. Warden led the losers Shope and Jean Calhoun with nine with six. As usual all the sophomore guards played an outstanding game.

SENIOR-JUNIOR, 45-44

The junior-senior game played last Wednesday night turned out to be another nip and tuck affair. During the first quarter the juniors did most of the scoring and held a 16-7 lead at the end of it.

The seniors came back strong in the second quarter and at the end of the half had cut the junior lead to 23-22.

In the third quarter the lead changed hands constantly with neither team gaining over a two point lead. At the end of the quarter the juniors led 33-31.

The fourth quarter proved to be the most exciting. The seniors quickly scored nine points while holding the juniors to two and led 40-35. The latter came back strongly and scored five points while holding the seniors scoreless.

This tied the score again and moments later with only two minutes left the score was 42-42. The juniors went ahead 44-42 but seconds later Emily Warden hit on a foul shot to cut it to one. Then with less than 30 seconds to play Ann Sprinkle hit on a terrific set from near mid court to send the seniors onto a 45-44 lead.

For the winners Ann Sprinkle netted 23 points as she hit from every angle of the court. Emily Warden, who did some beautiful shooting on her own, had 17. For the juniors Larkins had 18 and Lewis 16.

The sophomore-freshman game for the championship was held last night.

Beth Coursey

Beth Coursey Will Marry Pvt. Jack Wilson On March 7

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Coursey of Charlotte have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Beth, to Pvt. Jack Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson of Pilot Mountain.

The wedding will be held Friday, March 7, at 8:00 p.m. in the First Methodist Church of Charlotte. A reception will follow in the social rooms of the church.

The couple will honeymoon for 10 days after which Beth will return to Salem. Jack will leave the United States on March 17.

The wedding was originally planned for early June, but was set ahead when Jack received his orders to go overseas.

Mary Frances Coker of Charlotte will be maid of honor. Mrs. Tom Coursey of Salisbury, sister-in-law of the bride, will be matron of honor. From Salem bridesmaids will be Marion Watson, Sally Senter and Emily Warden. Sally Anderson of Charlotte will also be a bridesmaid. Kitty Faucette will present a program of wedding music.

Beth, a member of the senior class, is a member of the A. A. Council, the Order of the Scorpion, May Day Committee and F. T. A. She is also pictorial editor of the Salemite.

Jack, prior to his induction into the army, was a senior at Davidson College. He was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He received his basic training at Camp Gordon, Ga.

Stee Gee To Paint

The Student Council will paint the Stee Gee room in Sisters' Saturday afternoon. The walls will be painted a light green and the woodwork and ceiling will be white. A committee of three, Daisy Chonis, Carmen Johnston and Betty Lynn Wilson, worked out the details for redecorating the room.

Schreiber

(Continued from page one) tributes articles to newspapers in Belgium, England, Denmark and the United States. He writes a monthly article for the magazine The Reporter.

The date of the Salem lecture was changed from March 22 to March 3. This was necessitated by the illness of Schreiber's wife in Paris. She is also a noted lecturer.
