

Day Student President Likes Tennis, Records, Dating

By Bessie Smith

"I really haven't done anything outstanding at Salem," said Sara Willard, president of the Day Student Organization, as she sat in the Day Student Center correcting her pupils' math papers. She is a senior math major, a member of the F. T. A. and a member of the lecture committee.

Sara is a native of Winston-Salem, having lived in the same house all of her 21 years. She attended Gray High School where she was a cheerleader, member of the National Honor Society, editor of the annual and D. A. R. representative. After graduating from Gray, Sara went to W. C. for a year and came to Salem her sophomore year.

Playing tennis, collecting popular and classical records, dating and reading are Sara's main interests.

Athletes Elected

Polly Larkins and Betty Morrison have been elected as freshmen representatives to the A. A. Council. These girls will also be assistant managers in basketball and softball. Jean Calhoun is the new monogram representative.

At the last meeting of the council, the annual skit night was planned for Wednesday, Oct. 22. Betty McGloughon will serve as chairman of this committee. Each class will present a stunt with the winner receiving a $3.00 prize. Last year's winner was the Senior Class.

The hockey tournament has been scheduled to start Oct. 27 with the freshmen taking on the seniors.

Her practice teaching now requires much of her time.

Sara plans to teach for a year or two after graduation, and, with a devilish look in her eye, she said she was not sure what would come after that. She does admit that she is interested in the Air Force!

Welch To Speak

Dr. Elizabeth Welch will speak to a special committee of parents and teachers and the high school F. T. A. at Lewisville on Oct. 20.

She will also do a repeat performance of her highly acclaimed talk, "Behind Red Velvet" at the Carolina Drama Association at Chapel Hill on Oct. 25.

News Briefs

The Lablings will hold its second meeting Monday, Oct. 20, at 7:00 p.m. The guest lecturer will be Dr. Crockett Cheers, intern at Bowman Gray School of Medicine.

Dr. Cheers is Peggy Cheers' brother and is pinned to Carmen Johnston; therefore, he is of special interest to Salemites.

Refreshments will be served, and all students are invited to attend.

Mrs. Amy Heidbreder has announced that the polio ban has been lifted in regard to trips to Durham and Chapel Hill by order of the college physician.

The I. R. S. Birthday Dinner will be held Tuesday, Oct. 28 in the Corrin Refectory.

The sophomores elected a hockey manager and three cheer leaders. The hockey manager is Carolyn Kneeburg from Salisbury. Cheer leaders will be Jackie Nielson and Diane Knott from Winston and Bert Brower from Winston-Salem.

The first meeting of the Participation Committee occurred Oct. 13. At the meeting, general policies were reviewed and plans for special studies were made.

Serving under Miss Eileen Smoke, chairman, are Ann Rhyne, Jane Little, Jo Ann Moody, Miss Margaret Vardell and Dean Ivy Hixson.

The Salemite extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Don Hartzog upon the birth of a daughter, Anne Christine. She was born July 18, 1952. Don is a student at Salem.

Miss Evabelle Covington spoke at Y Vespers last Sunday night on the subject of kindness. She used scripture readings and personal experiences to emphasize the importance of small acts of kindness.

The Y. W. C. A. sponsored a surprise party in the living room of Biting Wednesday night in honor of our foreign students. Students joined in group singing, and refreshments were served.

Gifts of clothing and room decorations were given to Guillemette Roussel of France, Hadwig Stolz-wetzer of Austria and Elizabeth Krauss of the Netherlands.
