

165 Salemites Are In Favor Of Bureau On Campus To Secure Jobs For Graduates

By Allison Long

A group of anxious girls approached the Salemite staff with this question "Why does Salem College not have a job-placement representative employed on campus?"

These girls asked that a poll be taken from the rest of the students in order to find whether or not everyone else is as interested and as concerned about this matter as they are.

The poll was taken from members of each class, and there was a unanimous agreement that such a person should definitely be here for the explicit purpose of giving various prospects for jobs to the graduating Salemites.

Old members include Jane Smith, president; Jean Davenport, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Warren Spencer, advisor to the group; Miss Evabelle Covington, Dr. Minnie J. Smith, Dr. Ivy M. Hixson, Mrs. Amy Heidbreder, Dr. Gregg Singer and Drane Vaughn.

seniors more than any other class, and it would certainly be extremely helpful to them in securing a job more easily when the time comes. The representative would be here only on a part time basis, but the students would still be in contact with her as much as would be needed.

The following comments were made from the different students who were polled: Anne Merritt—"I thought that we already had one, but since we don't I think that, by all means, we should have one."

Jane Schoolfield—"I think it is a wonderful idea, but in order to make it worth while the girls will have to show enough interest in it."

Sally Reiland—"It is a shame that in a school of this size there has not been one here all the time."

Angela Howard—"Please let's get a male representative!"

Betsy Liles—"Oui, oui, mademoiselle."
