

Sinclair Has New Year's Wedding

Miss Kit Sinclair became the bride of Lieutenant Hal B. Ingram at 5:00 p.m. on Jan. 1. The ceremony took place in the home of the bride in Laurensburg.

The bride wore a robin's blue taffeta dress, ballerina length, with dyed-to-match lace bodice and a bolero of taffeta with push-up sleeves. She wore a diamond lavaliere belonging to her aunt.

Her hat was of black veiling and velvet bands with white roses at the side. She carried a satin prayer book with a white orchid showered with ribbon and stephanotis.

Kit is a graduate of Stuart Hall in Staunton, Va., and is a member of the senior class at Salem.

Hal attended High Point College and the University of N. C. He has been stationed in Laredo, Tex., in the Air Force and recently received his commission as a 2nd Lieutenant.

Wednesday night Sister's dormitory gave Kit a surprise linen shower.

Strong's Converted Yankee Chosen Girl Of The Month

By Anne Lowe

"Quick Selma, tell me something exciting about myself," said Strong's converted Northerner Cynthia May. Salem's January Girl of the Month need not worry; her career to date has been one to envy.

Cynthia was born in Boston, Mass. and lived there until 1949 when she moved to Greenville, S. C. "I have a terrible habit of not letting Southern gentlemen treat me as a Southern lady," she said. "One time my coat got caught in the car door three times because I wouldn't wait for my date to open the door."

She must have learned the Southern customs quickly, because she plans to marry Malcolm Spann, a Greenville boy in August.

The five-foot-eight Salemite had a successful career at Salem too. She is a Marshal, a "Y" worker and one of the big cogs in the Salemite wheel. She has also played field hockey and basketball, though she insists that she is "not athletic."

Cyndy frequently visits Mrs. Melvin and her three little boys to discuss French and life in general. Cyndy says the visits are fun and besides, Mrs. Melvin sometimes feeds her.

With an English major and a

French minor, Cyndy leans toward the literary side of life. Writing poetry and themes for comp. keep Cyndy busy using her skills.

Cynthia's roommate is Joann Moody of whom she is fond but frequently scared by, because "she giggles and growls in her sleep and scares me to death."

"I loath typing, but do it all the time," said Cynthia as she sat neat and straight finishing the last words of her term paper. "I guess I could never be a secretary."

Cindy and Malcolm are planning to live in Atlanta, Ga. where she hopes to be near enough to Florida to acquire a porpoise. (A porpoise??) "Yes, I saw them at Marineland last summer and have wanted one ever since."

Cynthia has the distinction of being the only girl in Strong whose mind rolls off the bed, up the wall and out the window when she takes blue pills. Blue pills or not the Salemite is proud to announce that cooperative Cindy is the distinguished Girl of the Month.

Summer Wedding Is Planned By Charlotte McGlaughon

The engagement of Charlotte McGlaughon to James Curtis Butner has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McGlaughon, Meadowbrook Drive, Winston-Salem. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Butner, also of Winston-Salem.

Definite plans for the wedding have not been made except that it will be in Winston and sometime this summer.

Charlotte is a senior day student and is majoring in English and minoring in primary education. She is a member of the F. T. A. and the first Day Student representative on the A. A.

After the wedding Charlotte and James will live in Venezuela, where James is connected with the British American Tobacco Company.

Clothes Discussed

Foreign customs along the clothing line are quite different, was the conclusion drawn by the members of the Home Economics Club at their meeting last Monday from talks made by the foreign students.

Hadwig Stolwitzer told the club that in Austria earrings are not worn by the most proper girls, Elizabeth Krauss commented that Dutch women are not clothes conscious, and Guillemette Roussel gave a vivid description of a Paris fashion show.
