

McNeely Is Stee Gee President

Parents' Day To Be Held On Saturday

The Freshmen and Sophomore classes will entertain their parents on a Parent's Day Saturday, March 7. The day will officially begin at 2:00 p.m. with registration of parents in Clewell reception room. From 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. students, parents, and faculty are invited to an informal tea in Strong Friendship rooms. Clewell and Strong will have open house from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m.

Dinner will be served to parents and their daughters at 6:00 in the club dining room. At 8:00 in the evening a program of entertainment to which all students, dates, parents, and faculty are invited will be given in Old Chapel.

Gertie Johnson, Ella Ann Lee, and Mary Ann Raines are in charge of the entertainment program which has been christened "Showtime Salem Style". The theme is on entertainment of four periods: an 18th century drawing room, a 19th century Showboat, a roaring 20's speak-easy, and 20th century Broadway stage.

Rooney Barnes will narrate. Ella Ann Lee and Martha Thornberg are pianists. Diane Huntley is the "all-time Gaylord Ravenal." Mary Ann Raines and Nancy Florence will dance their famed Charleston. Peggy Hawkins and Emily Baker will appear as Marge and Gower Champion. Tinkie Millican will do an Apache dance. Emily Howell will give her imitations via records. Sally Knight and Ernie Kapp will render selections from "Showboat". Al "Temple" Jolson will call her "Mammy".

Nancy Florence and Ann Edwards will present a musical interlude via piano. Nancy Proctor will remind us that "You Can't Get A Man With A Gun" and Carolyn Spaug is "Gonna Wash that Man Right out of her Hair". The finale to all this talent will be a chorus line with Mary Alice Ryals, Bunny Gregg, Mary Ceile Flowers, Dayle Dawson, Betty Riddle, Toddy Smith, Phyle Stiarret and Jody Mellicke.

Mr. Louis B. Daniel will speak on behalf of the parents at dinner-time. Dr. Gramley will speak for the college; Bobbi Kuss and Nellie Ann Barrow for the sophomore and freshman classes respectively.

Behind the scenes of this big day are Gertie Johnson, Mary Ann Raines, and Ella Ann Lee in charge of entertainment; Ann Mixon and Sally Reiland working on lighting, Margaret Blakeney on costumes, and Rose Ann Worthington on props. Joy Dixon, Margi Hartshorn, and Sara Outland are working on namecards for the parents; Bobbi Kuss on the program. Both name cards and programs will be done in Salem's colors.

Both classes are indebted to Mrs. Heidbreder, Dr. Gramley, Dr. Hixon, Miss Marsh, Miss Roberts, Mrs. Cummings, and Mrs. Tesch for their help on Parent's Day plans. Nellie Ann Barrow and Bobbie Kuss are in charge of student arrangements.

This is the second annual Parent's Day. It is different from last year's in that it is being held jointly by the Freshmen and Sophomores. Last year's was held by the Freshmen only.

Bobbie Kuss and Alice McNeely pose for the photographer following their election as Student Government officers Tuesday. Bobbie is the new secretary and Alice is the new president.

Other Heads Are Chosen In Elections

The five Student Government officers have been elected in chapel this week.

Alice McNeely of Mooresville was elected president of the Stee Gee and Bobbi Kuss was chosen secretary of the group in assembly Tuesday.

On Thursday Alison Britt, Mary Lou Whiteheart, and Mary Bambalis were chosen as on-campus vice president, off-campus vice president, and treasurer of the Student Government respectively.

Alice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McNeely. Majoring in sociology-economics and minoring in French and religion, Alice has been active in many school activities. She now holds the office of president of the junior class, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and a marshal and a Scorpion.

Bobbi, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuss, is from Allentown, Penn. She is now the president of the sophomore class and is active in the A. A. and in the Art Club and other campus jobs.

Rising senior, Alison Britt from Murfreesboro is president of the Art Club, a marshal, and the junior class reporter for the Salemite. Alison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Britt, is an English major and history minor.

The new off-campus vice-president, Mary Lou Whiteheart is the daughter of Mrs. R. E. Whiteheart of Winston-Salem. Mary Lou is a math. major and primary education minor. She is vice president of the junior class, a marshal, and a member of the honor society.

Mary Bambalis, also from Winston-Salem, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Bambalis. She graduated from the Academy and is a sociology-economics major and history minor.

These Student Government officers will take office along with the other heads of organizations who will be elected in the next few weeks. The installation of new officers will take place in assembly Tuesday, March 31.

Civic Music Presents Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra Concert At Reynolds Auditorium

The Winston-Salem Civic Music Association presented the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra in a concert last Wednesday night at Reynolds Auditorium. The concert was the fourth in the Civic Music Series for this season.

The orchestra was directed by Fabien Sevitzsky, and featured

Sidney Foster, rising young pianist, as soloist.

2,000 Attend

Considered by critics as being one of the outstanding symphony orchestras of the country, the Indianapolis Symphony, now in its 23rd year, was well received by the more than 2,000 Civic Music patrons.

The program opened with the Bach Fantasia and Fugue in G minor, followed by Gershwin's Concerto in F, for Piano and Orchestra. Mr. Foster was featured as soloist and was called back for two encores. He selected first, "Perpetuum Mobile", by Weber, followed by a "below the border" selection by David Guion of South Carolina.

Takes Three Encores

After intermission, the orchestra presented Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 4 in F minor. The audience's applause repeatedly brought Mr. Sevitzsky back and the group took three encores.

The program closed with the stirring march, "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Soph Victory Causes Tie

Tuesday night the sophomores threw the basketball championship into a three-way tie by trouncing the freshmen 48-34. There was no doubt as to the outcome of the game after the first quarter at which point the victors led by a 19-6 score.

During the second quarter the sophomores continued to pour on the steam. Later the freshmen made a slight rally, but soon the sophomores had everything under control again.

For the winners tail Allison Long once again led the way as she threw in 22 points from her pivot position. Jean Currin gathered 11 and Louise Fike contributed 10 to the cause.

For the freshmen, Margaret Rairford sank 13 points and Polly Larkins had 12 for her night's work.

Francine Pitts played a brilliant game at guard coming out with numerous rebounds.

WSSF Increases

W. S. S. F. Chairman, Alice McNeely, reported that $125 had been contributed to the fund-raising campaign last Monday night. Most of the pledge money had not come in and students are urged to get it in as soon as possible.

The drive will continue through this week and into next week, if necessary. Solicitors will continue to visit students so that those who have not yet pledged may do so.

Katharin Green To Present Piano Recital Next Monday

Miss Katharin Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Green of

Katharin Green

Midland will be presented in her senior recital by the Salem College School of Music at 8:30 p.m. Monday, March 9, in Memorial Hall.

While at Salem, Katharin has studied piano under the instruction of Dr. Charles Vardell and Mr. Hans Heidemann.

Her Monday recital program is as follows:

- Sonata in E flat Major...Haydn
- Allegro
- Adagio
- Presto
- Three Etudes Chopin
- F minor
- A flat Major
- F minor
- Scherzo in B minor Op. 20
- Reflets dan l'eau Debussy
- La soiree dans Grenade Debussy
- Concerto in A minor Op. 53 Schumann
- Allegro affetuoso
- Audante espressivo
- Allegro-Cadenzo
- Allegro Molto

Katharin has been a member of the Chorale Ensemble and enjoys reading and knitting. She also likes to embroider dish towels and to play basketball. Her future plans include marriage and teaching private piano lessons.