

Siler, Mixon Score High On Tests

Freda Siler rated highest on the general culture test and Ann Mixon was highest in contemporary affairs in the scores from the National College Sophomore Testing Program.

The general culture tests included questions on history, social studies, literature, science, fine arts, and mathematics.

Following Freda in the total scores on general culture were Ann Mixon, Mary Anne Raines, Dorothy Morris, Bobbi Kuss, Norma Ansell, Carolyn Kneeburg, Faye Lanham, Pat Marsh, Betty Claire Warren, and Betsy Liles.

In contemporary affairs, next to Ann, were Freda Siler, Helen Carole Watkins, Betty Lynn Wilson, Mary Anne Raines, Norma Ansell, Kay Cunningham, Faye Lanham, Margaret Blakeney, and Betty Riddle.

The questions in the contemporary affairs division concerned public affairs, science and medicine, and literature and fine arts.

Highest ratings in each separate field under contemporary affairs were Ann Mixon in public affairs; Freda Siler in science and medicine; and Mary Anne Raines and Betty Lynn Wilson in literature and fine arts.

In the general culture rating were Mary Anne Raines in history and social studies; Ann Mixon in literature; Freda Siler in science; Ann Mixon in fine arts; and Carolyn Kneeburg and Freda Siler in mathematics.

The comprehensives tests are administered through the Educational Testing Service and are given annually to college sophomores throughout the country.

"Mac" To Study In France On Fulbright Scholarship

By Jean Calhoun

"I really don't know much about it. But I'm going," said Eleanor "Mac" McGregor concerning the Fulbright Scholarship she won this week.

"Mac" does know that the scholarship will allow her to study

Eleanor McGregor

for one year in France. She will study French literature at Poitiers University in Poitiers, France. Dr. Michael Lewis also studied at this university. Poitiers is about 100 miles from Paris in southern

The newly elected marshals are: Sally Ann Hudson, Kay Cunningham, Diane Knott, Gertie Johnson, Sally Reiland and Emily Heard.

Six Marshals Elected For Next Year

Emily Heard, Diane Knott, Gertie Johnson, Sally Reiland, Kay Cunningham, and Sally Ann Hudson are the newly elected marshals for the rising senior class.

The class of '54 elected these five boarding students and one day student from the rising junior class to serve as marshals for the coming year.

Emily Heard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Heard of Kinston.

Diane Knott is the daughter of Mrs. W. A. Knott of Kinston. Diane is a member of the Canterbury Club, has helped with May Day, and was a member of the "Antigone" cast.

Gertie Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Johnson of Burlington. She is treasurer of Clewell dorm, a member of the F. T. A., finance committee, and the Sights and Insights staff.

Sally Reiland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Reiland of Bluefield, West Va. Sally was copy editor of the Salemite and treasurer of the Westminster Fellowship this year. She is managing editor of the Salemite and business manager of the Pierrettes for next year.

Kay Cunningham is the daughter of Mr. Neil Cunningham of Palomar Park, Cal. Kay is house president of South, has been a member of the hockey team for two years, a member of the Canterbury Club and the I. R. C.

Sally Ann Hudson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hudson of Winston-Salem. She is a member of the F. T. A., on the Salemite staff, and is next year's representative for the I. R. S.

The newly elected marshals will take over their duties May Day. The duties of these girls include marshalling at chapel programs, May Day, Commencement, hat burning, lectures and concerts.

Cyndy May, Jean and Joan Shope, Alice McNeely, Alison Britt, and Mary Lou Whiteheart served as marshals for the class of '53.

Lu Long Ogburn served as chief marshal this year. Jane Little was elected chief marshal for the class of '54.

Jess Byrd Announces New Salem Lecture Committee

The Salem College Lecture Committee for 1953-54 has been chosen by the chairman, Jess Byrd.

The new committee includes faculty members from the college and academy and Alumnae from Winston-Salem.

They are: Lelia Graham Marsh, Edith Kirkland, Mrs. Kate S. Pyron, Warren Spencer, Edwin Shewmake, Clemens Sandresky, Margaret Barrier, Mrs. Henry Blackwell, Mrs. Richard E. Shore and Mrs. Burton Craige.

Also included in the committee are students from the college and academy.

They are: Jean Calhoun, Barbara Allen, Frankie Strader, Betsy

Liles, Louise Barron, Edith Tesch, Carolyn Brookshire, Bryan Balfour and a freshman representative who is to be elected.

The new committee will have its first meeting at 4:00 p.m. Monday, April 20, in the Friendship Rooms of Strong.

New Officers Are Elected

Class officers and representatives to the Student Government, I. R. S., and Y. W. C. A. councils were elected before Spring Vacation by their classmates.

The officers of the rising senior class assisting President Lu Long Ogburn are Ann Bondurant, vice-president; Barbara Allen, secretary; Elizabeth Bass, treasurer.

The representatives of this class to the Student Government Council are Joan Shope and Connie Murray; to the I. R. S. Council—Sarah Sue Tisdale, Ann Moye, Ann Bondurant, and Lu Long Ogburn; to the Y. W. C. A. Council—Betsy Forrest and "Boots" Hudson.

Next year's junior class will be headed by Pat Marsh, president; Betty Claire Warren, vice-president; Bryan Bowman, secretary; Freda Siler, treasurer.

The various council members of this class are Sue Jones and Sara Outland, Student Government; Mary Anne Raines, Helen Carole Watkins, and Sally Hudson, I. R. S.; Norma Ansell and Carolyn Kneeburg, Y. W. C. A.

The rising sophomore class elected as its president, Ella Ann Lee; vice-president, Betty Jean Cash; secretary, Julia Parker, and treasurer, Phyllis Sherrill.

Their representatives to the Student Government are Louise Barron and Nellie Ann Barrow; to the I. R. S. Council are Anne Campbell, Martha Thornburg, and Betty Jean Cash, and to the Y. Council are Agnes Rennie and Eleanor Walton.

Medium To Be Given

"The Medium," a tragedy in two acts by Gian-Carlo Menotti, will be presented at the Carolina Dramatic Association's festival in Chapel Hill Saturday, April 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Playmakers' Theater.

This will be the third time that Salem College has been represented at this festival. "The Medium" will be given as a guest performance and will not enter the competition because faculty members participate in it.

The original cast will be presented in the play. All crew heads and crew members, as well as the director, Miss Elizabeth Riegner, will be present.

The first play which was presented at the festival by the Pierrettes was a comedy, "Apartment to Let" in 1949. Miss Frances Horne had a part in this play, and it won a production award.

The Carolina Drama Festival sponsors this yearly drama festival. The purpose of the Carolina Dramatic Association is to encourage dramatic art in the schools and communities of North Carolina.

The drama festival will have afternoon and evening sessions. There will also be presentations of several original plays, a costume and make-up contest, and a discussion hour.

Joanne White Payne To Give Senior Graduating Recital

Mrs. Joanne White Payne, pianist, will present her senior graduating recital at 8:30 p.m. Monday, April 20 in Memorial Hall. While at Salem, Joanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. White of Archdale, has been an active member of the Salem College Chorale Ensemble, Assistant Business Manager of the Sights and Insights, a member of the Y Cabinet, and a church organist.

Joanne White Payne

Joanne has studied under Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Jr. and Hans Heidemann.

Her program will be as follows:
Prelude and Fugue in B flat minor, Book 1 Bach
Sonata Opus 90 Beethoven
Etude Op. 25, No. 1 Chopin
Waltz Op. 18 Chopin
Polonaise Op. 53 Chopin
Konzertstueck Op. 79 Weber
Larghetto, ma nou troppo
Allegro passionato
Adagio Tempo di Marcia
Assai presto

Mr. Hans Heidemann at the second piano.