Fifty Frosh Get Awards

Fifty freshmen received Boys' Club pins and certificates of merit at a party in Clewell date room last Monday. These awards were given in appreciation for the girl's work at the Red Shield Boy's Club during the year.

Nat S. Crews, juvenile judge of Forsyth County, and President of the Red Shield Club Board of Directors, and Joseph D. Sotis, Jr., Executive Director, presented the certificates.

These were inscribed: "For having displayed outstanding proficiency in volunteer leadership during the program year of 1952-53." The girls taught classes in cooking, dramatics, singing, photography, arts and crafts, and served as librarians.

Judge Crews, in commending the girls, said that, of the three hundred sixty-six Boys' Clubs in America, "Nowhere in the nation has work been done on such a fine scale."

Mr. Sotis especially thanked Miss Margaret Barrier, who presented this service project to the freshmen class, and Nellie Ann Barrow, class president, who were largely responsible for the success of the project.

A cake decorated with "Thank you Salem Sweethearts", and ice cream were served to the girls after singing the "Boys' Club Song."
