

Salemites Review Their Year's Learning As Spring, Exams Close The School Year

By Ella Ann Lee

Spring, with its fresh crop of flowers and sun bathers, brings happy thoughts of the closing of books and the ending of exams for another year.

They Learn

Many Salem students find this an opportune time to ask themselves just what they've learned during this year. Especially seniors, whose education is near its end, do we find making a self-analysis. When I asked a few seniors to name the outstanding thing they had learned this year, I was answered with such erudite sayings as:

Ruthie Derrick's reply, "Of all my courses at Salem, I found Tom Perry's course on drugstore gossiping to be the most enlightening."

Jane Smith said, "How good a time I had on a week-end by the way I felt on Monday."

Jean Feels

Jean Harrison hopped up and yelled, "It takes two to tango! Root-de-toot-toot!"

Among the freshmen, Ann Campbell replied, "There are fifty-three steps going up to third floor Clewell, and I don't know how many going down."

Joy Harrison exclaimed, "It's easier to go on a diet than eat

broccoli!"

Diane Huntley groaned as she said, "Never to take a man out to eat unless you're sure he'll pay you back!"

Martha Thornburg answered, "How to keep studying from hindering my education."

Rosanne Looks

Roseanne Worthington looked quite wisely down her nose at me and replied, "I ain't learned nothing!"

Gertie Johnson groaned and said, "Mr. Curlee's famed Boscovick Property!"

Toddy Smith smiled and said, "A short cut to Chapel Hill." Bobbie Kuss answered, "Bowman Gray is O. K.!"

Among the juniors, Barbara Allen came up with, "How stupid I am!"

Jean Shope said, "Height is no hinderance."

Alice McNeely laughed and replied, "All Salem girls aren't angels—thank goodness!"

Lucy Says

Lucy Harris said, "Furnished apartments are not always conducive to good marriages."

Miss Chapman, one of our luckier females on campus, seemed to have a wise answer in replying, "Never be surprised at what can happen on a vacation!"

Picnic Is Planned

The day students have planned their last social of the year, a picnic to be held in the May Dell at 6:00 p.m. Saturday, May 16.

Anna Katherine Dobson, president of the group and in charge of plans, has appointed Ruth McIlroy, Edith Tesch, Betty Jean Cash and Joanne Smith to be in charge of food.

Parents of the girls have been invited to come as special honor guests.

Art Exhibit Is Held

The Art Club is sponsoring a Student Art Exhibition in the Salem College Library.

The exhibition is now on display and will run through May 20. All Salemites are invited to be art critics and cast their vote of two cents for their favorite pictures.

Macauley Holds Writing Forum

Robie Macauley, noted author and critic, conducted the Writing Workshop for the second semester composition class yesterday.

Mr. Macauley, who is now English professor at W. C. U. N. C. in Greensboro, reviewed eight short stories written by six members of the class.

Compositions he reviewed are "Sub-Deb" by Alison Britt, "Debat" and "That's Too Long" by Jean Calhoun, "Little Napoleon" by Russell Chambers, "They're from Barston" by Cynthia May, "Flowing White Dresses" by Connie Murray, and "Another Spring" and "Resolution and Independence" by Hadwig Stolwitzer.

YEARS AHEAD OF THEM ALL!

1. THE QUALITY CONTRAST between Chesterfield and other leading cigarettes is a revealing story. Recent chemical analyses give an index of good quality for the country's six leading cigarette brands.

The index of good quality table—a ratio of high sugar to low nicotine—shows Chesterfield quality highest

... 15% higher than its nearest competitor and Chesterfield quality 31% higher than the average of the five other leading brands.

2. First to Give You Premium Quality in Regular and King-size . . . much milder with an extraordinarily good taste—and for your pocketbook, Chesterfield is today's best cigarette buy.

3. A Report Never Before Made About a Cigarette. For well over a year a medical specialist has been giving a group of Chesterfield smokers regular examinations every two months. He reports . . . no adverse effects to nose, throat and sinuses from smoking Chesterfield.
