

Campus News Travels Fast

By Donald Caldwell

Well, things must really be happening on other campi, girls, because the news has already reached me in my little attic room between South and Sisters'. (I've finally moved from Clewell and my new room is quite cozy. Miss Essie and I have jolly talks about the ghosts that room with me.)

The biggest news that I've heard is that Carolina's football team is really showing some spirit. The big test comes when they meet those terrible Terrapins from Maryland. Oh, shades of Charlie Justice, if they could only win! It would be just like the old days. State and Wake Forest have already bitten the dust—Duke University is next in line.

So much for sports girls, and let's get down to important things—about two more weeks to Germans! Better pull out your best formal and brush up on those dance steps 'cause Tommy Tucker is going to play some "crazy" music.

I'm also hearing big things about that football team at Duke. They've been sweeping all of their opponents. They also have ideas about that Duke-Carolina game. May the best team win.

On the social side of the matter, Duke had their homecoming last week-end. Salem was quite well represented. (Lucky Girls.)

Getting to that little ole Baptist school that is soon moving to Winston-Salem, they had a great homecoming here in Winston. Villanova didn't have a chance. (If Wake Forest would hurry and move, I might have a chance to get out of my attic. I can't wait.)

Moving down southward, seems as though I heard that there would be big doings at Davidson this week-end. Though the Wildcats haven't had too much success on the gridiron, they are out to get those P. C. boys.

Then after the game there will be big doings in the gym. Charlie Spivak is playing for the homecoming dance. Wonder what lucky girls will accompany our Gramley boys?

Get out your heavy coats, girls. State is playing Wake Forest Saturday night. Night games seem to be the coming thing 'specially in this cold weather. No one seems to realize that a girl's clothes show up so much better in the afternoon. But that's the breaks.

That's the news for North Carolina at the present. But so much has happened, is happening and is going to happen that the Salem Sallys should soon be out of cuts and overnights. Then there might be a few lessons studied, books read, and themes written.

House Presidents Are Found "Mothering" Large "Families"

By Laura Mitchell

Now that Rat Week is over Salem is beginning to settle down to its regular routine, as are the various house presidents.

Louise Barron, who is Mother to the sophomores, as well as of the freshmen in Clewell, is enjoying her family very much, although the first week was rough.

Louise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barron of Rock Hill, S. C., is a Math and English major. She is also a member of the Student Council, on the Lecture Committee and a member of the Inter-

As for other activities, Louise loves to play basketball, golf and hockey.

Norma Ansell, a junior, is the house president of Society. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Ansell of High Point.

When asked about her new dorm, Norma exclaimed, "I am crazy about Society, and can't wait to get the finishing touches completed."

Norma is majoring in medical technology. Aside from this she is on the "Y" cabinet, secretary of national Relations Club.

the Lablings, and president of the Canterbury Club.

Tennis and golf rank high with Norma as do music and concerts. She spent the summer in Canada working as a waitress in a resort hotel. "It was fun," Norma said, "even though I did drop a tray full of dishes the first day."

Nancy Ziglar, who transferred from W. C. last semester, is house president of the Home Management House. Her comment of her new home was, "I love the Home Management House."

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ziglar of Madison. She is majoring in Spanish and minoring in French. An avid sports player, Nancy loves tennis, softball and basketball. A record fan, Nancy has a large collection of popular records.
