Committee Elects Betsy Forrest As "Miss Student Teacher"

By Francine Pitts

Betsy Forrest, president of the F. T. A., was sitting in the living room of the Home Management House right before a bridge party. She had just learned that she had been elected "Miss Representative Student Teacher."

The student body elected Doris McMillan of Galax, Va., Anne Moye of Tarboro and Betsy as the three girls to go before the Faculty Education committee. Wednesday afternoon the girls gave short talks and answered questions about their talks for the committee.

The committee consists of Dr. Dale H. Gramley, Dr. Ivy Hixon and Mrs. Amy R. Heidbreder, representatives of the college, Mrs. James Hart and Dr. Elizabeth Welch as representatives of the Education department. Miss Virginia Hodges, chairman of the Teacher Education committee of the college, the Rev. Edwin A. Sawyer, Miss Jess Byrd, and Mrs. Lucille Scott, members of this committee, were also present.

From the city schools were Grace Brunson, Supervisor of Elementary Education and Marvin Ward, the assistant superintendent of city schools. Kathleen Emerson and Mildred Pate, supervisors in the Forsyth County Schools, were also present.

Betsy's talk was on "Why I Want to Be A Teacher." She gave her main reason for wanting to teach in a statement that she "likes people." She further stated that her eight weeks of practice teaching at Kernersville and Gray High Schools made her decide definitely that she wants to teach.

Betsy, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Forrest of Hillsboro, is a home economics major and an education minor. In addition to being president of the F. T. A., she is vice-president of the student body and vice-chairman of the May Day committee. This year she is business manager of the Sights and Insights, and is a member of the Home Ec. club, the "Y" cabinet and the Westminster Fellowship.

In March, Betsy will represent Salem at the State F. T. A. convention where she will run for "Miss North Carolina Student Teacher." She says she is anticipating this with nervous enthusiasm, but that she is anticipating most enthusiastically next year when she will be a full-fledged teacher.

News Briefs

Vespers this Sunday will be a movie entitled "As For Me and My House." The theme of the movie is Christian marriage. It will be shown at 6:30 p.m. in the projection room of South Hall.

Since class schedules were final Monday, February 8, all students having a change in their original schedule should notify Mrs. Amy R. Heidbreder, Dean of Students, of the change. This is in order that the Dean of Students' office will have accurate records of each schedule so that students may be properly and effectively notified and contacted when occasion arises during the day.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, ABE!

happily married nearly thirty-four years, and oftentimes we sit close together and talk of that Thanksgiving morning and other heavenly days at Salem.

May President Gramley with his new and more lenient system of discipline continue to bestow such benedictions on the youth of today and tomorrow as came to Mary Lee and me in the seeming over-strict days of a goodly past.

How the stars got started....

WILLIAM HOLDEN says: "My Dad, a chemist, wanted me to follow in the business. But I got the play-acting bug in school and college. I was in a small part at the Pasadena Playhouse when they picked me to test for 'Golden Boy'. I never worked so hard in my life. But the success of the picture made it worth it!"
