leges and Salem took part. Mr. Warren Spencer moderated.

Earlier in the day the students were given maps of the college campus and shown on a tour of Salem. At dinner last night they were the guests of the college, and after dinner they were honored by a coffee in the Friendship Rooms of Strong.

The invited colleges were Davidson, Queens, Elon, Lenoir-Rhyne, Belmont Abbey, Winston-Salem Teachers' College, Mitchell, Guilford, Greensboro College and Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

summer session at the University of Oslo is breath-taking to me!" exclaimed Agnes in her essay. "More serious thought convinces me that the experience of living in Norway will be more significant for our two countries, Salem College, and for me than the limited amount of study I can do while there. I would look forward, in studying the literature, history and social and political institutions of the country, to receiving only a foundation on which to base my attitude toward the 'seeing' I'll be doing with my eyes, my mind and my heart."

Agnes thinks that this experience will prepare her for her relations with people all through life and lead her to influence her classmates and her future family to be more internationally minded.

The alternates chosen for these two girls are Bobbi Kuss and Martha Thornburg.

Alan Ladd
says:

"I was a Hollywood stagehand. One day I fell 20 feet off a scaffold. I wasn't hurt, but I decided acting was safer.

I went to acting school, played bit parts ... finally I hit pay dirt in 'This Gun for Hire!'"
