

The ink, the people, the hours
so late—
We'll miss it all, but it's been great!

The Salemite

Hello to the new, the fresh, the inspired;
Good-bye to the old, the stale,
and the tired.

Benefit Auction Brings Dinner Dates And Services To Students

A drive-in date with Mr. Sandresky; a dessert bridge at Dr. and Mrs. Gramley's; three rides to Florida with Miss Marsh, and many other such items were auctioned off in chapel Tuesday and yesterday.

The auction was sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and the proceeds will go to the World University Service. As Helen Fung explained Tuesday, this organization gives aid to universities abroad in the form of books and school supplies.

Helen also explained that part of the proceeds would go to help pay the expenses of Salem's foreign students next year.

As the auction began, Helen urged the students to bid and "make it high and snappy." She also said "Don't pass the buck, give it."

With that, the auction began. Mr. Britt served as auctioneer. The first item auctioned was a lemon ice box pie to be baked by Anne Merritt. Nancy Proctor got the pie for $1.75.

The next item was an invitation by Charles Medlin to take one girl to dinner at the Robert E. Lee "at her convenience". Edith Flagler was the lucky girl for the price of $6.00.

Other items auctioned were dinner and bridge for eight girls at Mr. Britt's; a steak supper and use of the infirmary living room (with the door closed) for two girls and their dates offered by Miss Biggers; a cake to be baked by Jean Currin; sweaters to be washed for a week by Joan Reich; a cake to be baked by Dr. Welch; a cartoon drawn by Mr. Shewmake, and a steak dinner for two girls and their dates by Miss Collet and Miss Palmer.

Some of the things auctioned off on Thursday were: a trip to the drive-in movie for three girls bought by Anne Crenshaw for $2.00, Sarah Smothers for $1.75, and Agnes Rennie for $4.50.

The offer by Dr. Lewis for dinner and movie was bought by Boots Hudson for $5.50, and Carol Glaser for $4.75. Maggie Blakney and Joan Shope bought Mr. and Mrs. Spencer's dinner for two and Phyllis Stinnet bought Mrs. Starr's hat for $9.00.

B. S. U. Elects New Officers

Ann Williams, a sophomore from Henderson, was elected president of the Salem Baptist Student Union at a meeting of the Baptist students Monday evening.

Pat Green was elected first vice-president in charge of enlistment of new members; the second vice-president, or devotional chairman, is Denyse McLawhorn; Ann Knight was named third vice-president, or social chairman.

Ann Webb was chosen secretary and Jeanne Eskridge is the new treasurer.

Sally Reiland, Bobbi Kuss, and Sarah Outland who were named heads of campus organizations.

Last Officers Are Elected This Week

Ann Campbell, Salem's "Miss Charm" for this year, was elected chief marshal by the student body in chapel last Wednesday. On Wednesday afternoon Ann Mixon of Summit, N. J., was chosen president of the Pierrettes by current members of the organization.

Ann Campbell succeeds Jane Little of Albemarle as head of the marshals, and Ann Mixon will assume the duties of Connie Murray of Durham as president of the drama group.

The daughter of Mrs. George H. Campbell of Murfreesboro, Ann is an organ major with a minor in voice. She was freshman feature girl for the annual, Sights and Insights, last year, and has been on the councils of the I. R. S. and Y. W. C. A.

Ann was also treasurer of her freshman class and played the lead in the Pierrettes' 1953 fall production, "Dark of the Moon". She is a rising junior.

The new Pierrette president is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Mixon of Summit. She is taking a double major in history and French. Ann's extracurricular activities have included news-writing for the Salemite and participation in hockey games, as well as working on and in Pierrette productions. She has been on the varsity hockey team three years. Ann is a rising senior.

These two officers, as well as the heads of the other major organizations elected during the past three weeks, will be formally installed next Thursday in chapel. The installation service will be conducted by Alice McNeely, out-going president of the student government association.

Juniors Are Chosen

Betsy Liles and Jean Currin were elected state presidents of two student organizations during the week-end of March 23.

Betsy was elected president of the North Carolina Future Teachers of America at their annual convention in Raleigh. She has already taken office.

Jean was elected president of the College Club Division of the North Carolina Home Economics Association at its convention at Meredith College in Raleigh.

Dr. Elizabeth Welch, head of the education department, was elected state advisor to the North Carolina Future Teachers of America for a term of three years.

News Briefs

The Wake Forest College choir directed by Thane McDonald will sing in chapel Tuesday. The choir composed of 46 members will have lunch in the college dining room.

The Choral Ensemble will present the music at the annual dinner of the Winston-Salem Traffic Club on Wednesday, April 7, at the Robert E. Lee Hotel.

The architectural firm of Lashmit, James, Brown and Polluck has been obtained to do the planning for the next three buildings to be erected on the Salem campus.

The buildings are, a new power plant, a dormitory and an annex at the Academy. Plans call for the buildings to be built in the next two or three years.

The faculty held a dinner meeting Wednesday evening in the club dining room to continue the series of self-study and evaluation meetings. Dean Ivy Hixon, Dr. William B. Todd and Mr. Warren Spencer served on a panel which presented a discussion of the freshman curriculum.

Freshmen Win Softball Game

The first game of the softball tournament shows that the freshmen are planning to walk away with their third major tournament of the year.

Celia Smith hit a single to right field after two were out in the last half of the last inning to score Cissie Allen with the winning run for her team.

Up until this time the score had been tied at 5-5.

The game was close all the way with the lead changing hands twice. The juniors got off to a quick start by scoring twice in the first inning, but the freshmen came back with five runs in the second to take the lead.

The juniors tied it up in the fourth and it remained that way until Smith's game winning hit.

Ann Miles pitched the victory. Betty Lynn Wilson played the best defensive game for the losers in her first attempt at catching Louise Fike's pitching.

The remainder of the schedule is:
April 1—Sophomore-Junior
April 5—Sophomore-Freshman
April 6—Junior-Senior
April 8—Senior-Sophomore

Dr. Dale Gramley was the moderator.

Dr. and Mrs. Gramley and Miss Marsh will attend alumni meetings in Lumberton, Kinston and Wilmington on Friday and Saturday.

Vespers Sunday will be a movie called "The Difference". The theme of the movie is the Christian college versus the secular college.

This movie has been highly recommended by the National Council of Churches. The movie will be shown at 6:30 p.m. in South Hall.

The local branch of the American Association of University Women will conduct a speaking contest in the lecture room of the science building at 10:00 a.m. Saturday. Mrs. T. C. Karnes will be in charge.

Sign-outs for Easter holidays will be made from Thursday, April 8, through Saturday noon, April 10. This may be done during office hours from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 2:00 to 4:30 p.m. Information will be posted on all the bulletin boards.

Edith Flagler Will Present A Graduating Piano Recital

The Salem College School of Music will present Edith Flagler, pianist, in a graduating recital at 8:30 p.m. on Monday, April 5, in Memorial Hall. During her four years at Salem, Edith has been on the Salemite staff and for the past two years has been music editor. Her senior year she was elected president of the Choral Ensemble.

Edith, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Flagler, Sr. of High Point, has studied under Laurie Jones, Margaret Merriman and Hans Heidemann while at Salem.
