Betty Tyler
May Day Chairman

The purpose of this committee is to present to the students and friends of Salem College a pageant centered around fourteen Salem beauties. It is unique this year in that—besides the May Queen and her Maid of Honor—there are three representatives from each class.
The May Queen, LuLong Ogburn, fulfills all qualifications. She is a tall, slender blonde who has won many beauty titles, including third-place in the 1951 Miss America contest. LuLong is a piano major, president of the Senior class former chief marshal, a Scorpion, and a member of the Honor Society. This is her fourth consecutive year on Salem's May Court. She plans to be married in September.
The Maid of Honor is Mary Joyce Wilson, better known as "Piffles". She is a brunette who is majoring in music. Wedding bells will be ringing for her in the summer.
The three senior representatives to the May Court are Sara Sue Tisdale, Jean Shope and Elaine Avera. Sara Sue is specializing in home economics and plans to teach next year. This is her third year as a member of the May Court.
The one married member of the May Court is Elaine Avera. As may be expected, she is also majoring in home economics. Elaine is also doing some of the costuming for the pageant.
Jean Shope is a tiny girl from a tiny town—that being Weaverville. Jean is a sociology-economics major. She was president of the IRS, and this will be her first year on Salem's May Court. She will also be a summer bride.

Representatives from the Junior class are Nancy Florance, Bobbi Kuss, and Helen Carole Watkins. Nancy is a piano major; Bobbi is a language major, and Helen Carole plans to be a primary education teacher. This will be the second year on the May Court for all three of these girls.

The Sophomore representatives on the May Court are Bunny Gregg, a brunette from Bennettsville, S. C., Martha Thornburg, a piano major, and Eleanor Smith, an English major from Reidsville.

The freshman May Court representatives are Meredith Stringfield, Nancy Blum and Faye Roberts—the first two representing North Carolina, the last, an Alabama girl. These girls will appear at five o'clock on Saturday afternoon in dresses from a local store. The color of these dresses, following tradition, is kept secret. The queen will be dressed in white and she, as well as her court, will carry bouquets of flowers.

Following the festivities of the afternoon, the IRS will sponsor a dance. The theme of the dance will be centered around the Coronation Ball. The gym will be decorated in royal hues of purple and gold. Other decorations will include a royal throne for the May Queen and a golden carriage through which the figure will proceed. The figure consists of the May Queen and her court.

Britt Will Be Emcee
Johnny Johnston's orchestra will play from nine to twelve, while Donald Britt will be Master of Ceremonies.

The Junior class will sponsor a "midnight snack" from twelve to one, immediately following the dance.

This, then, is the program for May Day at Salem—1954. We wish Betty Tyler and her committee the best of luck—but most of all we hope for no rain!

Skits Are Presented

Thursday, April 29, the second in the series of class chapel programs was given by the Senior class.

The theme of the skit was "Rehearsal of the Faculty Play." Members of the Senior class impersonated various members of the faculty—characterizing their speech, actions, and personality. The pseudo-faculty entered at the back of the chapel and went to the stage where they gathered "to rehearse the faculty play."

Dr. Betsy Forrest Welch conducted the rehearsal with the assistance of Anna Katherine Nicholson. Betty Tyler Shewmake entered dancing with two accompanists—Edith Flagler Horne and Joyce Billings Riegner.

Concerned over the chapel attendance were Jean Shope Sullivan and Dean Jean Edwards Heidbreder. Dean Barbara Allen Hixson gave Sue Harrison Barrier instructions to increase the amount of homework for her students.

Lu Long Sandresky, Dean of Music, was searching for Joan Elrick Starr as well as a piano. Dr. Alison Todd took time off from rehearsal to read his report on "The Sex Life of an Oyster". Accompanying Dean Sandresky on the piano for the recessional was Connie Hans Heidemann.

The first of the class programs was given by the Freshmen who opened the program with the appearance of Medium, Madam Durham. She foretold the future of Salemites and their tribulations at Salem College. The styles of the future days were shown as looser around the waist with short skirts underneath the robe.

The hair styles were individualistic depending on the size of the head. New rules were presented to the girls concerning the parking of rockets and jets. The girls were told not to come in before 4:00 a.m. so the townspeople would not suspect them of being poor dates. After a fashion show narrated by Ann Miles, the program was concluded.

Tuesday, May 4, "Case Studies of a Psychiatrist" will be the program to be given in chapel by the Junior class.

Engagement Of Leslie Taylor To David Whitesell Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Leslie Taylor of Pinehurst announce the engagement of their daughter, Leslie Katherine, to David Allen Whitesell of Pinehurst, son of Mrs. Delis Herbert Whitesell, also of Pinehurst, and the late Mr. Whitesell.

The wedding will take place June 23, 1954, at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Church in Pinehurst. Among the attendants will be Emily Cathcart, Leslie's roommate and Ann Harris, a student at Salem Academy.

Leslie was graduated from Salem Academy and is a freshman at Salem. David is a painting and papering contractor in Pinehurst. After a brief honeymoon, David and Leslie will live in Pinehurst.

Greetings, Lovelies!
