Carole Watkins of Hartsville, S. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watkins.

Others in the court are Bunny Gregg of Bennettsville, S. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gregg; Eleanor Smith of Reidsville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. G. Smith; Martha Thornburg of Hickory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thornburg; Nancy Blum of Winston-Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Blum; Meredith Stringfield of Chapel Hill, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Caldwell, Jr.; and Faye Roberts of Anniston, Ala., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Roberts.

Tyler Heads Pageant

The pageant, to begin at 5:00 p.m., is headed by Betty Tyler of Kinston and directed by Sally Reiland of Bluefield, W. Va. Four complete dances, involving 35 students or more and centered around "The Wizard of Oz", will comprise the hour-long, outdoor pageant.

Sue Harrison as Dorothy, Emily Baker as the Scarecrow, Betty McGlaughon as the Tin Man, and Joan Shope as the Wizard of Oz are some of the principle characters. Others are Kay Cunningham as the Lion, Joyce Taylor as Queen of the Mice, Mary Jim Hendrix as the Good Witch and Diane Huntley as the Wicked Witch.

Edwards Is Narrator

Anne Edwards is the major narrator for the pageant. Other narrators will be Maggi Blakeney, Francine Pitts, Temple Daniel and Julia Parker.

The IRS May Day dance—"The Coronation Ball"—will begin at 9:00 p.m. Admission is $1.50 per person and $3.00 per couple; tickets may be secured from members of the IRS Council or at the door Saturday night.

Dance music will be provided by Jimmy Johnson's orchestra from Chapel Hill. The figure, involving the queen and her attendants, will be presented at 10:15. During intermission refreshments will be served in the Club Dining Room. Late permission will be granted to girls attending the dance.

Committee heads for the dance include: Ernie Kapp, refreshments; Denyse McLawhorn, Sandy Whitlock and Ann Coley, dance bids and chaperones; Eleanor Smith, publicity; Nancy Blum, the figure;

Helen Carole Watkins and Bobbi Kuss, decorations.

From 12 midnight until 1:00 a.m., the Junior class will sponsor a midnight supper in the Day Students' Center. Admission is 50 cents per person.

Juniors Elect Six New Marshals To Usher At Events In 1954-55

The rising Senior class recently elected their junior marshals for next year. From those nominated, five boarding students and one day student were chosen.

Those elected were Susan Glaser, Jane Langston, Eleanor Smith, Julia Parker, Agnes Rennie and Jean Miller. Ann Campbell, the Chief Marshal, had been elected earlier by the student body.

Susan, a public school music major from Bethesda, Md., was recently chosen Girl of the Month; and Jane, who is from Goldsboro, is a sociology major and member of the Y. W. C. A. council. Eleanor is on this year's May Court and is an English major from Reidsville, while Julia is majoring in history and is serving as secretary of the Sophomore class.

Agnes, a French major from Richmond, has just received a scholarship to attend summer school at Oslo University. Jean, from Winston-Salem, is a voice major and soloist with the Choral Ensemble.

The new marshals will serve at the remaining chapels, lectures and concerts this year and at May Day.

How the stars got started...

Red Barber says: "I was a student working my way through the University of Florida when I was asked to be substitute announcer on a farm program. That got me a job. In two years, I became chief announcer. My break in sports came in '34 when I broadcast Cincinnati Reds games. Been doing Major League play-by-play ever since!"
