A. A. Sponsors Tournament

The softball tournament opened on Tuesday afternoon with two games. The Sophomores defeated the Freshmen 20 to 6. Ann Webb and Betty Webster took honors for their teams. Nine to 5 was the final score in the game between the Seniors and Juniors, with the Seniors winning.

Wednesday afternoon, the Seniors defeated the Freshmen with a score of 10 to 3. Louise Fike and Mary Anne Raines, pitching and catching for the Seniors, proved a valuable combination for the Seniors.

Brenda Goerdel, manager of the Sophomores, led her team to a 14 to 10 victory over the Juniors.

The championship game will be

Dean's Reminder

The Office of the Dean of Students announces a preview of the plans which are expected to get under way immediately after spring holidays. Notices have already been sent to the new presidents of all organizations, informing them of the meeting of the President's Workshop on April 20.

The treasurers of all organi-played Monday afternoon. The Seniors will be challenging the Sophomores for the title. The two classes were pitted against each other last year with the Sophomores winning.

Students are reminded that there will be a faculty-student softball game April 4. The A. A. asks all girls to come cheer their favorite team to victory.

zations and financial advisors, old and new, who have a vote, are asked to be present at a meeting of the Finance Board on April 26. This group will receive recommendations and helpful criticism from a committee which was appointed last fall to study the financial affairs of all student organizations. The Finance Board sets up the student budget.

The Handbook committee will begin work on the 1955-56 Handbook after Easter. The on-campus vice-president is chairman of this committee; the off-campus vice-president is in charge of getting ads to pay for the publication of the Handbook.

The Orientation Committee, which is composed of the presidents of all campus organizations, the Dean of Students, the Academic Dean, and the house president of Clewell will soon begin on the orientation project for 1955-56.

Bartow, Fla. Judy is not unfamiliar with leadership and campus activities. During the past two years, she has served as House President of Society, treasurer of the Sophomore class, Student Government recorder, and has worked with the 'Y' cabinet.

She also writes for the staffs of the Salemite and the Sights and Insights. Judy has taken roles in both the Pierrette plays this year.

After graduation, Judy would like to teach high school English.

Elected president of the rising Sophomore class was Mary Jane Galloway. A prospective economics-sociology major, Mary Jane is from Rock Hill, S. C., and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Galloway.

The new prexy has won recognition by serving on the I. R. S. council. She is a Dean's List student.
