

Leaders Announce New Councils, Committees

Immediately after the election of the major officers last month the new organization heads began to appoint councils or to arrange to have representatives elected by classes and other groups.

To acquaint you with the students who will be publishing, planning, organizing, directing, and serving next year, here is a summary of the councils and committees appointed up to this time.

The Athletic Association

With new president Betty Morrison conducting, the A. A. Council elected Nellie Ann Barrow vice-president, Ann Miles treasurer, and Cookie Koimer secretary.

The council is composed of Dhu Jennette, Katherine Oglesby, Mary Curtis Wrike, Ann Crenshaw, Jane Langston, Mary Hadley Fike, Jean Stone, Temple Daniel, Brenda Goerdel, Jo Smitherman, Sissie Allen, and Nancy Russell. Seven of these are newcomers.

Future Teachers of America

Mary Mac Rogers was recently chosen president. Emma McCotter is the new veep; two sophomores, Carol Cooke and Betty Byrum, were picked to be secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Inducted into F. T. A. were Katherine Scales, Kate Cobb, Mary Walton, Sarah Vance, Kay Williams, Sarah Smothers, Margaret Hogan, Harriet Harris, Pat Ward, and Rose Tiller.

Others were Judy Graham, Ann Knight, Jane Shiflet, Marcia Stanley, Bren Bunch, Nancy Gilchrist, Toni Gill, Betty Baird, Carol Cooke, Rachel Ray, Mary Avera, Pat Flynt, Ann Darden Webb, and Betty Lou Walker. All these girls are sophomores who plan to become teachers.

Lablings

The new Lablings president, Sara Katherine Huff, a science major from Pulaski, Va., reports that her organization has not yet chosen its officers for the 1955-56 year.

Sights and Insights Staff

Martha Thornburg has chosen the new Sights and Insights staff. The three major staff offices have been filled by Mary Mac Rogers (associate editor), Jo Smitherman (assistant editor), and Mary E. McClure (business manager).

Photography editor will be Agnes Rennie; her assistant, Julia Parker. Class editors are Ella Ann Lee, Sissie Allen, Linda Chappel; Day Student editor is Betty Jean Cash.

Brenda Goerdel will serve as art editor; Rose Dickinson is her assistant. Assistant in the business department is Celia Smith.

Typists will be Libby Norris and Susie Glaser. Mr. Britt will continue to be faculty adviser.

Young Women's Christian Association

The Y Council, headed by Mary Lou Mauney, elected Agnes Rennie vice-president, Kay Williams secretary, and Peggy Ingram treasurer.

The council members are Jane Langston, Nancy Russell, Mary Mac Rogers, and Emma McCotter from the senior class; juniors are Ann Knight, Nell Newby, Sujette Davison, and Ann Darden Webb; rising sophomore representatives are Bootie Spencer, Nancy Walker, Dhu Jennette, and Miriam Quarles. The day students will be represented by Suzanne Delaney and Martha Ann Bowles.

The Pierrettes

Julia Parker's Pierrettes will thrive with Barbara Durham serving as business manager and Emily Baker, Toni Gill, Judy Graham, Terry Harmon, and Patsy McAuley composing a production board.

Marshals

The present junior class elected

six marshals to serve with chief Louise Pharr during the 1955-56 year. The rising juniors chosen were Joan Reich, Nancy Blum, Rose Tiller, Jeanne Eskridge, Toni Gill, and Jo Smitherman.

The Lecture Committee

Student members appointed to the Lecture Committee for next year are Emma McCotter representing the seniors, Jo Smitherman the juniors, Betty Webster the sophomores, Ann Tesch the day students, and Carol Jenkins the academy.

Emily McClure, Salemite editor, is automatically a member; Marian Myers is representative-at-large.

Townpeople on the committee are Mrs. Claude Strickland and Mrs. Eunice Ayers.

Faculty members, in addition to chairman Jess Byrd, are Miss Kirkland, Mrs. Pyron, Miss Collett, Dr. Spencer, Mr. Shewmake, Dr. Lewis, Mr. Sawyer, and Mrs. Henry Blackwell of the academy.

Students To Give Banquet

Over one hundred and fifty Forsyth County secondary and elementary principals and teachers will be guests at the annual banquet given by the student teachers of Salem College. The event takes place on May 5 at 6:00 p.m. in the club dining room.

Those who have helped in any way with the Salem College student-teacher and psychology observation programs are invited to join in an evening of fellowship with the Salem faculty.

Although there will be no formal program, Dr. Gramley, Dr. Welch, head of the department of education, and Ann Edwards, president of the Future Teachers of America organization, will make several short remarks to the guests in appreciation for the co-operation they have shown in helping the college with its education and psychology programs this year.
