

Music Group To Convene On Campus

Around forty members of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Musicological Society will meet on the Salem campus Saturday, November 5. Donald McCorkle, assistant professor of musicology at Salem, is chairman of the meeting.

Lunch in Corrin Refectory at one p.m. will begin the proceedings. Then the group will convene in the Day Students' Center for a three-part program.

The Salem College Trio, composed of Charles Medlin, cellist, Hans Heidemann, pianist, and Eugene Jacobowsky, violinist, will present the first portion. They will play Beethoven's Trio in C Minor, Opus 1, No. 3.

As the second part of the program two papers will be read. Dr. Glen Haydon, chairman of the Music Department of the University of North Carolina, will read: "Costanzo Festa: Hymni Per Totum Annum." Presented in Oxford, England, last summer the paper will be read for the first time in America.

The music editor of the Moravian Church of America and a member of the Salem faculty, Mr. McCorkle will read "John Antes, 'Dillettante Americano'."

To conclude the afternoon the members will tour Wachovia Museum and the Moravian Archives where they will participate in demonstration and discussion of Early Moravian Music. Salem students and musicians are welcome to attend the afternoon program.

Honor Groups Reveal Selections For '55-'56

Louise Barron

Nellie Ann Barrow

Nancy Peterson

Five Selected By Who's Who

Five seniors — Louise Barron, Nellie Ann Barrow, Nancy Peterson, Agnes Rennie, and Martha Thornburg—have been chosen as Salem entries in the 1955-56 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

The selections were made by a committee composed of Dr. Gramley, the president of the Student Government Association, and five faculty members appointed by Dr. Gramley.

Having been an active Student Government council member, Louise Barron was elected president of the student body for the current year. She is majoring in mathematics and plans to teach. Louise was junior editor of Sights and Insights last year and is now assistant feature editor of the Salemite. She has been active in functions of both the Pierrettes and the Athletic Association.

From Alberta, Va., Nellie Ann Barrow, a home economics major, is on-campus vice-president of Student Government. She is secretary of the Senior Class, vice-president of the Athletic Association, and a member of the Home Economics Club. In previous years she has been house president of

Order Of Scorpion Picks Two Seniors, Four Juniors

Mary Lou Mauney, Denyse McLawhorn, Sissie Allen, Judy Graham, Anne Miles and Jo Smitherman have been chosen for membership in the Order of the Scorpion according to the announcement made by Dr. Ivy M. Hixson during Assembly on Thursday.

The Order of the Scorpion, a secret organization composed of fourteen juniors and seniors, aims to foster "the true spirit and ideals of Salem College" with its' goal as an "active and growing Salem life."

The members chosen last year include: Emily Baker, Louise Barron, Ann Campbell, Betty Jean Cash, Julia Parker, Agnes Rennie, Mary Mac Rogers, and Martha Thornburg.

Among the new members, Mary Lou Mauney is a Senior home economics major from Charlotte. She is president of the Y. W. C. A.

this year and has been active in that organization and the Home Economics Club in the past.

A religious music major from Winterville, Denyse McLawhorn serves as president of the Senior class. She is also a member of the Student Council and was treasurer of the I. R. S. and vice-president of the Choral Ensemble last year.

Also a music major, Sissie Allen, a junior from Troy, is president of Strong Dormitory and also presided over her class during the sophomore year. Her other campus activities include: A. A. Cabinet, Student Council, and the editorial staffs of the Salemite and Sights and Insights.

Judy Graham is an English major from Bartow, Florida. She is president of the Junior class, past-president of Society Dormitory, and is active on Student Council, I. R. S., Pierrettes, and the editorial staffs of the Salemite and Sights and Insights.

Summerville, S. C., is the home of Anne Miles, a Junior biology major. She was president of her class during her freshman year and is a member of the A. A. Cabinet and the editorial staff of the Salemite.

Recipient of the Oslo Scholarship last year, Jo Smitherman of Elkin is an English major. She is managing editor of the Salemite, assistant editor of the Sights and Insights, a marshal, and member of the Student Council and the A. A. Cabinet.

Agnes Rennie

Salem Bulletin Has Careers As Its Theme

By Judy Golden

This month, for the first time, I got around to reading a copy of the Salem College Alumnae Bulletin. Luckily, it happened to be a special issue on careers. As I turned through the first few pages I found articles by former Salemites who are very successful in their chosen fields.

The first article was written by a '49 graduate working in the field of magazine editing. Next were two articles by music majors. One tours Europe while the other is employed in New York City and New Jersey.

Social work was the subject of the next discussion. The author works in a Child Guidance Clinic in Chicago. Also present were articles on journalism, advertising and publishing, chemistry, and college teaching.

Finally, near the end of the issue, I found an article by Betsy Liles of the Class of '55. Her topic was "Salem Is A Career Girl." In it, she brought the alumnae up to date on the changes which have taken place this year at Salem. It seemed strange to think of Betsy as an alumna.

As I finished reading I thought of how many people should read this copy of the Bulletin. It is evidence of the success of Salem girls who probably couldn't imagine themselves as career girls any more than we now can.

News Briefs

Volleyball practice starts Monday, November 7, and will take place every afternoon from 5:00 to 6:00 in the gym.

The Special Study and Evaluation Committee will meet on Thursday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:45 at Dr. Gramley's home. The topic for discussion will be Salem's increased enrollment in 1957 and its attendant problems.

Martha Thornburg

Sisters, treasurer of the Y. W. C. A., and secretary of the International Relations Club. She was president of her Freshman class.

The president of the Day Students, Nancy Peterson, lives at 845 Watson Ave., here in Winston-Salem. Nancy, a piano major, is a past treasurer of the Student Government Association. A transfer from Woman's College at the beginning of her Sophomore year, she is now, in addition to heading the Day Students Organization, vice-president of I. R. S.

Agnes Rennie, 1954 recipient of the Strong Scholarship to Oslo, is from Richmond, Va. Her major interest is foreign language and a position in government service. Agnes is vice-president of the Y. W. C. A., and is doing the photography for Sights and Insights. Last year she was secretary of the Y, treasurer of the Athletic Association, and a member of the Choral Ensemble.

From Hickory, Martha Thornburg, a music major, is editor of the 1956 Sights and Insights. She has been chosen Salem College May Queen for the current year and spent last summer in Norway as a recipient of a Strong Scholarship to the University of Oslo. Martha has been an active member of the Y cabinet, the Salemite staff, and the Pierrettes. She was house president of South last year.

Considered in the choice of candidates was 1) her excellence and sincerity in scholarship 2) her leadership and participation in extracurricular and academic activities; 3) her citizenship and service to her school; 4) her promise of future usefulness to business and to society.

Mary Lou Mauney

Denyse McLawhorn

Judy Graham

Madeline Allen

Anne Miles

Jo Smitherman

Love Feast To Be Given

The students of Salem College are being given an opportunity to become acquainted with a lovely Moravian service known as the Love Feast.

It is a beautifully simple service of fellowship and thanksgiving which the Moravians have celebrated for over two hundred years. It symbolizes the early church's custom of breaking bread from house to house in happy fellowship.

During the service, each person receives a bun and a mug of coffee and those who break the bread together are united in fellowship like that of a family.

The Moravian students on Salem's campus will conduct a Love Feast in Little Chapel this Sunday night at 6:30 p.m. and Wednesday night at 9:15 p.m. Sunday night has been designated for freshmen, and Wednesday for sophomores, juniors, and seniors; however, anyone may attend either night.

Special music will be provided by Ernestine Kapp on Sunday night and Mr. Mueller on Wednesday night. On both nights, Suzanne Gordon will present a violin prelude and postlude.