

The engagement of Emily Inez Baker to Mr. Robert Perry Hyatt is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Howard Baker of Rocky Mount, N. C. Mr. Hyatt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry Hyatt of Cherokee, N. C.

Emily, who is head of the May Day Committee as well as a member of the May Court, produced and directed the Junior and Senior Follies. Emily and Bob will be married in the late summer and will live in New Haven, Connecticut, where Bob is attending Yale Divinity School and where Emily will teach primary education.

"Y" Auction Big Success

Long Don Britt, Salem's one-armed auctioneer, spurred the Y. W. C. A. Auction on Tuesday.

The program opened with the door prize (an antique chair instead of a door this time) going to Mr. Robert L. Wendt. The articles auctioned ranged from food to a jewel case made in Korea.

Food articles composed a large part of the items auctioned: Closs Jennette bought a box of fudge made by Emma McCotter and Mary E. McClure; Dr. and Mrs. White's dinner was purchased by Bebe Boyd; Libby Norris and Nancy Walker bought brownies and fudge.

Three highlights of the auction were Mrs. Scott's spaghetti dinner bought by Bootie Spencer, Mr. Wendt's cake purchased by Anis Ira, and Mr. Campbell's picnic purchased by five freshmen headed by Hila Moore.

The music students bid on Mr. Heidemann's pizza supper. (His oven only has room for four now.) Miss Covington's steak dinner featuring romantic setting, modern chaperonage and former references went to Mary Hadley Fike.

The amount made was $114.75 in Tuesday's auction. The total amount is $269.50. Another auction will be held in chapel on Tuesday, March 13.

continue to carry on an effective Student Government Association—with the co-operation and backing of the student body, I feel sure that this will be possible."

Mr. and Mrs. John Jerome Collett of Thomasville, N. C. announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Ann Collett, to Mr. John Richards Hay, Jr., of Thomasville.

Mr. Hay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Richards Hay of Ahsokie, N. C.

Miss Collett has been head of the Physical Education Department for the past three years.

The wedding will be held in the Memorial Methodist Church of Thomasville in the early summer.

When the songs are light
And the fire's bright
For real delight—have a CAMEL!

—Man, that's pure pleasure!

It's a psychological fact:
Pleasure helps your disposition.

If you're a smoker, remember
— more people get more pure pleasure from Camels than from any other cigarette!

No other cigarette is so rich-tasting, yet so mild!
