

Faculty Head For Florida And Main Hall

It's a good thing that Santa can reach people everywhere because our faculty will be scattered in many locales during the Christmas holiday.

Dr. Hixson will be leaving for Florida as soon as the students have left. She will travel on both the west and east coasts. She hopes to make her final destination Key West.

Morganton, N. C., and an old-fashioned Christmas are in store for Miss Byrd. All of her relatives will congregate in Morganton. She will probably stay there through the whole holiday.

If Miss Riegner can get a ticket to "My Fair Lady" she may travel to New York. She plans to go to Philadelphia to stay with her mother and friends, but there is a possible chance she will also be in New York.

Miss Covington and Miss Minnie Smith plan a leisurely drive to Florida. Their destination is Orlando to spend Christmas Day with Miss Smith's brother. Miss Covington will leave Miss Smith in Orlando to visit her relatives in other parts of Florida.

Mr. Paine is dividing his time between study and play during his holiday. He is flying to New York on Dec. 18. An enthusiast of modern jazz, he will spend much of his time at Birdland. He will also do some research on his forthcoming book, Edward Eggleston.

Drusie Jones and Amory Merritt will accompany Mr. Farley as far as Jacksonville, Florida. From there Mr. Farley will go to other parts of Florida to visit his parents and look up some of his old friends. During his trip he will be gathering notes for his new book, Effect of the Stimson Doctrine Upon the Far Eastern Policy from 1933-1936.

Some of the faculty are staying in Winston-Salem during the holidays and two members will be spending much of their time in Main Hall.

Dr. Africa will be staying in his office to prepare for next semester's Russian history course and to grade the U. S. government class election papers.

Nothing but work is planned by Dr. Lewis who will be spending every possible moment in Main Hall typing the manuscript of his first book, The American Character and the Road Ahead. This is something of an extension of his doctorate thesis, and he has been working on it for the last five summers.

Mr. Shewmake smiles and says he will "mostly worry" during the holidays. He is expecting his first child on Christmas Day. He isn't particular about the baby being a boy or girl. "It will probably be one or the other," he said. He hopes the baby will arrive before January first because "you are exempt from the income tax for the whole year."

Mr. Wendt will be traveling—across town. His family is moving into a new home, his Christmas gift to them. The home is above Leroy's Drive-In. His mail will go to his old address.
