

My boat is on the shore
And my bark is on the sea,
But before I go from Salem,
Here's a double health to thee.

The Salemite

Here's a sigh to those who love me
And a smile to those who hate,
And whate'er skies above me,
Here's a heart for every fate.

Best Wishes To The Class Of '57 In All Future Endeavors

Scorpion Order Inducts Two Juniors

Martha Jarvis

The Order of the Scorpion has inducted two new members this week, Martha Jarvis and Nollner Morrissett.

The Order of the Scorpion is an honorary organization to foster the spirit and ideals of Salem College. The Scorpion does whatever work it can, large or small, to serve the college. Neither the organization or the members seek recognition, for the services which they render.

Nollner Morrissett

Only Juniors and Seniors are eligible for membership and new members are initiated once each semester. Membership is not based on scholarship or achievements, but on services given to Salem and the potentialities for future service.

The two new members are both juniors. Martha is from Coral Gables, Florida, and is an English major. She has been active on the IRS and in Pierrette productions. She is the '57-'58 editor of the Salemite, and will direct next year's May Day pageant.

Nollner, a sociology major, is from Lynchburg, Virginia. She has served on the Student Council and has been very active in the AA program. Nollner is a member of the new IRS cabinet and is the business manager for the 1958 Sights and Insights.

The present members of the Order of the Scorpions are Jo Smitherman, Carol Cooke, Madeline Allen, Judy Graham, Judy Golden, Pat Greene, Martha Ann Kennedy, Anne Miles, Shirley Redlack, Mary Walton, Kay Williams, Jane Wrike, and Mary Curtis Wrike.

Sissie Has A Big Week With Recital, Assistantship

Graduating Recital Monday Night

On Monday, May 13, at 8:30 in Memorial Hall, Madeline Allen, better known as "Sissie" will be presented in a graduating recital. Sissie is a student of Clemens Sandresky, Dean of the School of Music.

Sissie Allen

The popular senior has played an active part in practically all aspects of college functions and she has been associated with many of the campus organizations.

Sissie was editor of the 1957 Sights and Insights, she was on the Salemite staff, the AA council, and the Student Government. She is in the Honor Society, the Order of the Scorpion, Who's Who, and she won the scholarship to Oslo, Norway.

Her program will consist of:

- Mozart Sonata in B Major k333
- Allegro
- Andante Contabile
- Allegretto giocoso
- Twelve Etudes Symphoniques by Schumann Op. 13

Sonatine in f# minor by Ravel
Moderé
Mouvement de Menuet
Anime

Concert No. 1 in Db Major by Prokofew
Allegro brioso
Andante assai
Allegro scherzando

There will be a reception afterwards in the Friendship Rooms of Strong, and the public is cordially invited.

$1200 Assistantship Awarded In Piano

As I looked through the window of practice room number sixteen, of Memorial Hall, Sissie Allen was working diligently on a piece for her senior recital. Sissie smiled brightly when I asked her about receiving an assistantship to the University of Mississippi Graduate School.

The award means Sissie will earn $1200 a year and teach 12 hours of piano a week while working on her Master of Music degree. For the degree she will study, in addition to piano, orchestration, theory, and composition.

To receive the MM degree requires two years graduate work with the presentation of a recital at the end of that time.

Sissie is not positive that she will study both years at the University of Mississippi; in fact, she has not definitely decided to accept the assistantship.

The last thing Sissie told me, as she was running down the hall to have a music lesson, was, "This has been one big week with the annual, May Day, my recital, and this (the fellowship)!"

New Society Members Are Received

Jeanne Smitherman and Ruth Bennett, both rising juniors, will be formally initiated into the Salem College chapter of Phi Alpha Theta history fraternity Monday night.

Carol Campbell, student president of the chapter which includes both students and faculty members meeting the membership requirements, will direct the initiation and preside over a business meeting after dinner in Corrin Refectory.

Ruth, a history major from Hartsville, S. C., is currently holder of the Oslo scholarship.

Jeanne, who lives in Elkin, is an English major and feature editor of the Salemite.

Requirements for election to Phi Alpha Theta include a B-plus average in all history courses (these must total twelve hours) and a B average in the remainder of the candidate's subjects. A strong interest in history is also an important factor.

There are currently six student members: they are Celia Smith, Carol Campbell, Becky Hinkle, Martha Jarvis, Jo Smitherman, and Harriet Harris Pulliam.

Adviser for the group is Dr. Philip Africa; other members are Frank Albright, Lucy E. Austin, Evabelle Covington, Foster Farley, Amy Heibredner, Ivy Hixson, Donald McCorkle and Minnie Smith.

At the last meeting Mr. Chester Davis of the Winston-Salem Journal talked to the group on the role of history in news reporting and commenting.

The after-dinner business meeting on Monday will include evaluation of the year's programs and the mapping of a series of programs for the 1957-58 school year.

Seniors Will Be Invading The World After May 27

While some of the Seniors are leaving North Carolina for the big city life and excitement, many are staying in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and the Southern way of living.

Carol Cooke will go to Durham where she will be hostess at the Liggett-Myers Tobacco Company.

Ann Darden who becomes Mrs. David Freshwater on June 22 will be a primary teacher in the Durham City Schools in the fall.

Ann Crenshaw will also have a double career as housewife and teacher. "Shaw" will be teaching in Durham too while her husband continues his college work.

Nancy Blum will be nearby in Chapel Hill where she will be working and keeping house for her husband, Tom Wood.

Margaret Hogan and Brenda Goredel will be in Raleigh. Margaret will be teaching in the elementary school in Raleigh. Brenda is going with her roommate, Anne, to Europe before she settles down in an apartment with "Ben" and to her work.

Jane Shifflet is planning a summer wedding to John Ray Jameson, Jr. and then this fall to be a primary teacher in Marion, N. C.

Another summer bride, Ann Knight will be teaching in Clinton, S. C. while her husband continues his college work.

Several Seniors found their practice teaching so pleasant that they plan to stay in Winston-Salem and teach in the public schools. Kay Williams and Harriet Harris Pulliam will be teaching a fifth grade class here next fall. Jane Wrike will be back in Winston-Salem teaching a third grade after a summer at home in Graham.

Martha Legette and Joan Reich will be in Charlotte next year. Martha will be teaching, and Joan will be working.

Mary Thompson will be teaching in Burlington, N. C.

Southern Pines will claim Sarah Eason; while Nell Newby will teach piano in the Wake County schools.

Another music student, Mary Margaret Dzevaltauskas will teach music in a place called Prnci.

Another group of graduates plan to be happily-marrieds and state no plans for work. Celia Smith will keep house in Athens, Georgia; Suzanne Gordon will live in Detroit; and Bren Bunch will be way out in California. Patsy Hopkins will be back in Winston-Salem as Mrs. Hans Heidemann. Elinor Dodson also plans to be a homemaker.

The "undecided" group of girls say "teach?" or "no definite plans." Kate Cobb, Barbara Durham, Barbara Bell, Pat Flynt, Rose Tiller, Sarah Vance, Thrace Baker, Joanne Glenn, and Becky Doll McCord are the unpredictable. Jane Little will work in New York this summer, but is undecided about next year.

The two married day students will be in Winston. Anne Bennett will be working, and Betty Ruffin will be home with her new baby.

Pat Greene, Mary Avera, and Patti Ward are also planning to teach next year. Pat will play this summer and begin her teaching career in September at Virginia Beach where she will be joined by Mary. Patti will be living with her husband, George Fisher, in Columbiana, Ohio where she will teach.

Anne Miles is planning a trip to Europe this summer with Brenda. In the fall she will enter Med Tech school at the Medical College of S. C. in Charleston, S. C.

Dottie Ervin will be working at MCV in Richmond, Va. Also working in Richmond will be Jean Stone and Suejette Davidson.

Judy Graham is definite about her marriage plans, but not quite sure about her teaching plans.

Mary Walton will teach school, though she has not decided where.

Sissie Allen will continue her music studies at the University of Mississippi.

Betty Byrum Lilley is planning to join her husband, Aaron, in California and then they will move to Germany. Also going to Germany to live will be Cecil Price. Both these girls will be Army wives.

New York City has attracted cosmopolitians Marcia Stanley, Louise Pharr, Jo Smitherman, and Carol Campbell. Louise and Marcia do not know what they will be doing, but Jo and Carol have their jobs waiting for them. Jo will be working in the advertising department of the Chatham Manufacturing Company office. And Carol will be at the Palace Theatre taking up tickets.

Like the Class of '56, this year's graduates will be entering the teaching profession more than any other field. Again married life will occupy many of the girls. Those who will work after marriage are planning this to be only a temporary occupation until their husbands finish school or until they begin having their families.

However, recent surveys have showed that while young women usually only go into temporary employment after college graduation, they return to their occupations after their children enter college. So maybe, one of your grandchildren will be taught by a former classmate.
