

The Salemite

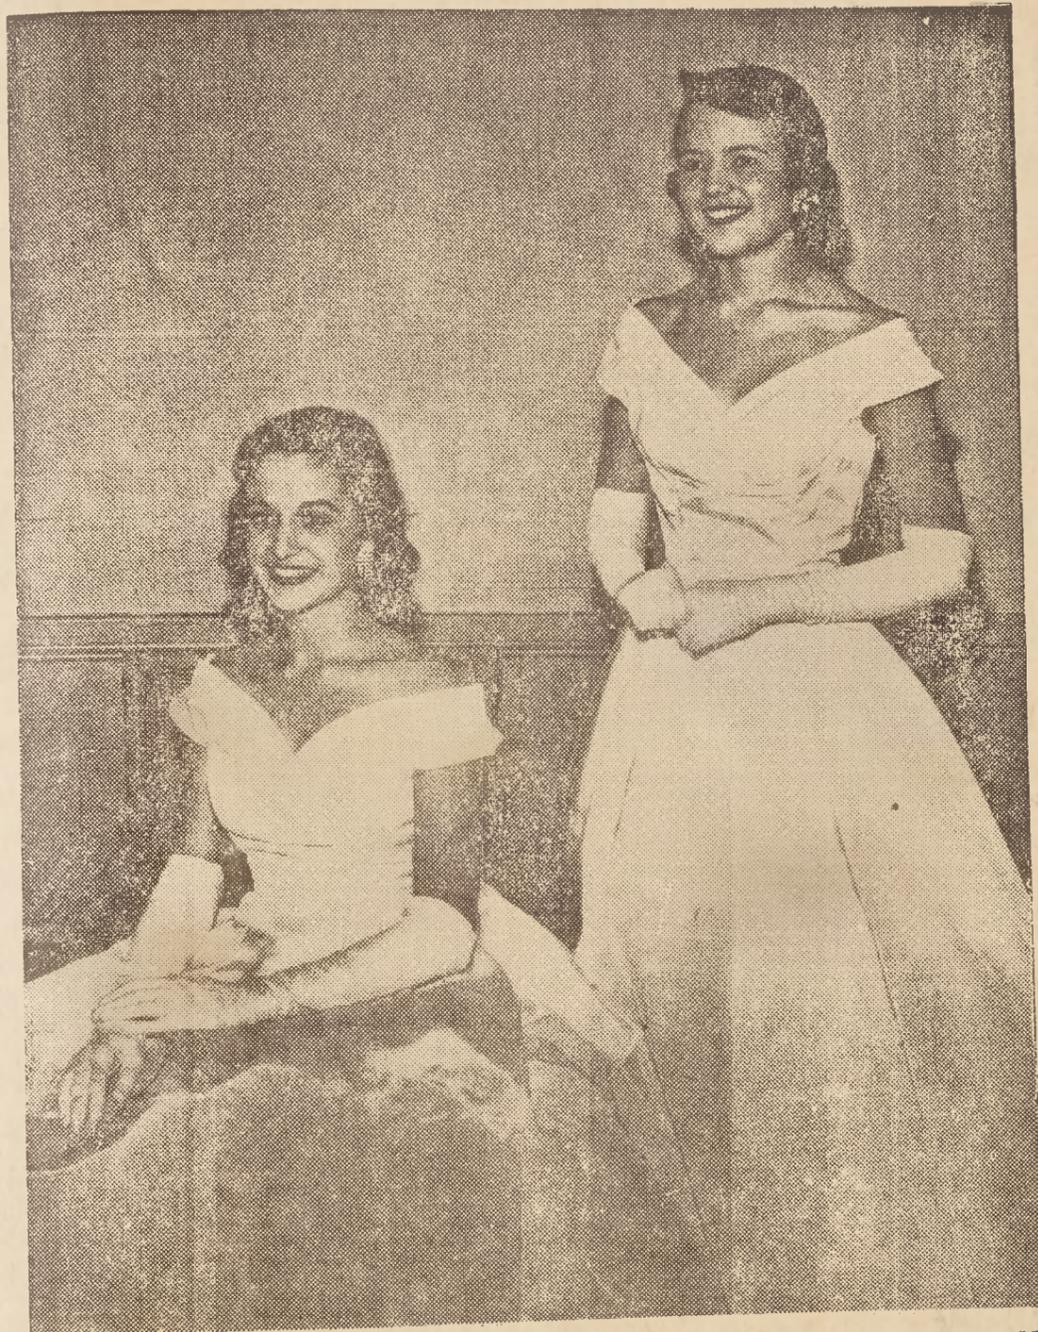

Volume XXXVIII

Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., Friday, December 6, 1957

Number 10

Nancy Walker Will Reign As May Queen

MISS NANCY WALKER, MAY QUEEN AND MISS NOLLNER MORRISSETT, MAID OF HONOR.
Photo by Grigg.

Nollner Morrissett Is To Be The Maid Of Honor

Practicing And Teaching Keep Beauties Busy

Having graced the May Dell for three years, Nancy Walker will reign this year as the Queen of the May.

Nancy is a tall graceful brunette with sparkling green eyes. She charms everyone with her soft lyrical voice and bright smile. Nancy is a typical Southern belle.

Nancy is capable of entertaining her friends not only with her musical ability but also with her subtle wit.

A girl who experiences very interesting summers, Nancy will tell you about her summer in Germany where she lived with a German family or about her summer studying at the University of Michigan.

She is not only a beauty queen but also a photographer. It is not unusual to see Nancy carrying a camera over her shoulder. And you will probably find her shooting pictures of her friends on the May Court rather than up on the hill posing with the other girls.

See Feature
(Continued on back page)

Nancy Walker was chosen as the May Queen for 1958 in an election held Monday night in Old Chapel. To serve as the Queen's first attendant is Nollner Morrissett.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Walker of Kinston, North Carolina. She is a piano major working toward a B. M. degree.

During her Freshman and Sophomore years, Nancy served on the YWCA Cabinet. She was also a member of the Salemite and Sights and Insights staffs her sophomore year. Nancy was president of the International Relations Club during her Junior year, as well as vice-president of the Music Students Organization. She sang in the Choral Ensemble and served as Chairman for May Day music.

This year Nancy is president of the Music Students Organization, and she is a member of the International Relations Club.

Nollner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Dewey Morrissett of Lynchburg, Virginia. She is a sociology-economics major.

Nollner was house president of Sisters dormitory during her sophomore year. In her junior year she was a marshal and the class treasurer.

This year she is a member of the See News
(Continued on Page Six)

"Christmas At Salem" Is Theme Of Holiday Dance

"Christmas at Salem" will be the theme of the I. R. S. Christmas dance which will be held in Corrin Refectory, December 14.

Music, furnished by the Duke Ambassadors, will begin at 9:00 and end at 12:00. There will be an intermission at 10:15. At this time, the I. R. S. council and their dates will be presented in a figure. Following the figure, light refreshments will be served in the dining room.

Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:00, the Duke Ambassadors will present a concert in Memorial Hall. Everyone is urged to come, with or without dates. This concert is for the benefit of the entire student body.

The price of the ticket for the dance is $3.50 which includes the concert. Individual tickets for the concert will be sold for $1.00 per person. Tickets will go on sale the last of the week and you can buy them from your I. R. S. members.

Dance Rules Are Stated

Students are expected to arrive at the dance by 10:30. They are not allowed to leave campus after or during the dance.

Those staying off campus must be off campus by 1:00. Rules concerning staying in town are stated on page 35 of the handbook. Students attending the dance have 1:00 permission.

There is a breakfast following the dance sponsored by the Junior Class and dormitories will be open for girls and their dates. Students attending the dance and staying on campus must be in their own room at 1:00 for room check. This will be explained to you by your House Presidents.

News Briefs

Envelopes containing fifty cents worth of Tuberculosis Association Christmas Seals will be placed in everyone's box on Friday. All students will be contacted during the week of December 9-13 for purpose of collecting from those who wish to buy the seals. This is a worthy cause and all are asked to cooperate in this drive.

Dr. Gramley and Dr. Hixson spent December 2, 3, and 4 in Richmond, Virginia, attending the annual meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Miss Simpson joined them on the 4 for the registrars' meeting.

Salem Academy's Senior Bazaar will be held Friday from 3:30 until 5 p.m. in the Social Room of the Academy Building.

Seniors will sell Christmas gift items to earn money for their gift to the school and other class expenses.

Annual Tea To Be Given By Home Ec Department

The Home Economics Department will honor the Senior Class, Faculty, Trustees, Parents of Home Ec. Majors, Home-Ec. teachers in Winston-Salem and Alumnae of Salem living in Winston-Salem at their annual Christmas Tea to be given tomorrow afternoon from 3:00 until 5:00 in the Home Management House.

The purpose of the tea is not so much to show off decorations or the Home Management House but to get those invited better acquainted with the Salem Home Economics Department.

As is the usual custom, the refreshments for the afternoon will be prepared by the Meal Management Class.

Over-all chairman for the tea, Camille Suttle and Home Ec. Club president, Martha Lackey have announced the following committees.

Decorations are being headed by Lucinda Oliver with sub-chairmen Jane Rostan decorating the living room, Peggy Ingram, dining room; Amory Merritt, front door; Anna Yelverton, upstairs.

The serving committee will have Katie Teague and Lynn Ligon pouring punch, Marcille Van Liere and Shirley Hardy replenishing the table, Marybelle Horton, Iva Stinson and Jerome Moore preparing the food in the kitchen.

Barbara Williams is chairman of the clean-up committee with Ann Neely, Dorothy Starling and Elaine Falls working with her.

Lynn Warren is chairman of the committee to supply punch bowls, punch cups, bon-bon dishes and the like.

Munch

It's not a breakfast Supper or lunch.

It's the Junior Class's "Midnight Munch".

It's after the dance

From twelve to one.

Buy tickets next week,

Now all ya'll come.

History Club Inducts Six New Members

On Thursday, six members were inducted into the Delta-Lambda chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, a national honor society in history. The installation ceremony took place in the Friendship Rooms of Strong, followed by dinner in the refectory and a meeting in the Friendship Rooms. The speaker at the meeting was Dr. Austin, a faculty member of Phi Alpha Theta.

Membership into Phi Alpha Theta is based upon a high academic record in the field of history and an above-average record in all other courses. The six new members in Salem's chapter are Miss Byers, a professor of history; Shirley Bowers, a senior from Winston-Salem; Mary Ann Hagwood, a senior from Elkin; Nancy Willis, a junior from Rock Hill, S. C.; Sue Cooper, a junior from Selma, Alabama; and Rachel Rose, a junior from South Miami, Florida.

Officers of the Delta-Lambda chapter of Phi Alpha Theta are Becky Hinkle, president, and Ruth Bennett, secretary-treasurer. The faculty advisor for the group is Dr. Africa.