

Choral Ensemble Is Active As Salem's Ambassador

Did you know that the Choral Ensemble is a Salem ambassador, advertising agent, and a public relations unit? Through the Choral Ensemble the name of Salem has spread throughout the city, state, and nation—from a national CBS television show to the Colored First Baptist Church here in Winston-Salem. The Choral Ensemble has already made thirty public appearances and plans five more concerts before the end of the year.

Last Fall the Choral Ensemble went to New York to appear on the national broadcast, "Look Up and Live". They also made two recordings for NBC; one for the Monitor show and one for the Nightline show. They were on our local WSJS for the Mozart Club.

Some of their concerts have been more exciting than others. The girls always enjoy the joint concerts with men's glee clubs. They sang with the University of North Carolina and plan a concert with Davidson in the Spring.

In the city they have sung for the Rotary Club, the Traffic Club,

Winston-Salem State Teacher's, the Oak Grove Moravian Church, and the Home Moravian Church. In the state, they have sung for the Piedmont Industrial Conference, the Northwestern Carolina Fair, the State Highway Commission, and the Music Club in Danville, Virginia.

Small groups from the Choral Ensemble have performed for the following programs: Kimberly Park School, South Fork PTA, Konnoak Moravian Church, Forest Park PTA, Highland Presbyterian Men of the Church, First Baptist Church, Kiwanis Club, and Trinity Moravian Church.

At the college they have sung for the Christmas Program, a chapel program, May Day, Parent's Day, Church-related-colleges' Dean's dinner, and Church-related colleges' Presidents' dinner.

A large percentage of the Choral Ensemble members are choir directors, soloists, organists, and accompanists for local churches and civic choral groups. Performances by these students would number well over forty.

Pierrettes Reorganize; Council Will Be Formed

Lynne Hamrick, president of the Pierrettes, Sarah Ann Price, business manager, and Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, faculty advisor, have been trying to clear up some of the misunderstanding concerning the Pierrette organization. It has been quite evident that the students have misinterpreted some of the club's functions. Every Salemite is automatically a Pierrette as she contributes individually to the club through the student budget. Any student may read for a part in a Pierrette production; any student may work on a technical crew.

Due to the size of the club, it is necessary to have a "backbone" to maintain a high degree of unity. Consequently, a Pierrette Council composed of the club officers, director, and class representatives, (two seniors, three juniors, three sophomores, and two second semester freshmen) is being organized. The purpose of this council will be to stimulate interest in dramatics as a fine art and to encourage students to participate actively in theatrical productions and related activities.

Keep Up With The News

Miss Evabell Covington reports that news has been received from Miss Margaret Barrier who was a sociology teacher at Salem for several years.

Upon leaving Salem, Miss Barrier went to Western College, a small school for girls in Oxford, Ohio. Last summer, she went with a group of girls from the college to the Far East and is planning a similar tour this summer in Africa.

At the present, Miss Barrier is studying at Columbia University and upon completing her work she will return to Western College as acting head of the Sociology Department.
