

"The Well-Rounded College Student Will Highlight IRS Week, April 6-9

Would you like to go to a fashion show, hear a hypothetical last lecture by Dr. Helms, see a "History of Man" by Miss Battle's oral interpretation class, and hear Mrs. Hoffinger's views on the "Things that Endure"? You will be able to do all these things during IRS week, April 6-9.

The theme of IRS week will be "The Well-Rounded College Student". The week will be divided to emphasize her social, academic, religious, and cultural development. On Monday in Chapel Montaldo's will give a fashion show, the May Court girls will be modeling. On Tuesday night Dr. Helm will speak in the Day Student Center. His topic will be "The Last Lecture I Would Give." On Wednesday Mrs. Jack Noffsinger will speak in the Day Student Center on the "Things that Endure". On Thursday in Chapel Miss Battle's Oral Interpretation class will present "History of Man", a series of dramatic readings from the works of famous dramatists.

This week will conclude with a Student-Faculty Fashion Show co-sponsored by the YWCA. Watch the bulletin board for further announcements.

Salemities Elect Evelyn Vincent New IRS Head

A two-time member of the IRS Council who has never received a call down for an unmade bed and who does not enjoy the college girl's favorite sport, bridge, has just been elected to head Salem's social standards organization, I Represent Salem.

Evelyn Vincent, a piano major studying under Clemens Sandresky, has been a choreographer for May Day productions (she had a leading role—Billy Bigelow—in last year's pageant), a treasurer of the YWCA, vice-president of the Music Club, and a member of the Choral Ensemble and the Chapel Trio.

In a soft-spoken Virginia (Danville) accent, Evelyn related her plans for after-graduation: "I think I'd like to travel with a touring choir, preferably Robert Shaw, for a year. Then, with the adventure-bug out of my system, I might settle down to teaching music."

Although she has only been elected three days, Evelyn already had some definite ideas about what she would like to see IRS become next year. "I'd like to see IRS function as a positive influence on campus social life, and not be viewed so much as a dispenser of call downs for social violations," she said.

In regard to the proposed changes in the type of Salem dance, Evelyn expressed interest in the student reaction and added that she favored a "little less formal dance, but not to the level of a jazz combo party."
