

Trio Plays In Concert On Monday

The Salem College Trio will present a concert of chamber music Monday, April 20, at 8:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall. Members of the trio, already well-known in the community, are: Eugene Jacobowsky, concertmaster with the Winston-Salem Symphony and Assistant Professor of Violin; Hans Heidemann, pianist with the Symphony, and Assistant Professor of Piano; Charles R. Medlin, first cellist with the Symphony and Instructor in Piano and Cello.

Included on the program are: Schubert's "Trio No. 1 in B flat (Opus 99)" and the "Trio No. 1 in B Major (Opus 8)" by Brahms. The first selection possesses a remarkable degree of shrewd emotional appeal, perfection of form, warm humanity and, most of all, the faint echo of gentle melancholy that breaks from almost all of Schubert's music.

Although the Brahms' Trio was written when Brahms was barely out of his teens, it represents the mature musician. Key sequences between the movements give to the work a decidedly somber, autumnal tinge.

The concert is open to the public.

Herring Gives Piano Recital Wednesday

Harriet Herring, will give her junior piano recital Wednesday, April 22, at 8:15 p.m. A student of Dean Clemmens Sandresky, Harriet first studied with Mrs. Henry Johnson and later with Stuart Pratt at Meredith. Her program includes: "Tocatta in D Minor" by Bach; "Sonata, op. 81a" by Beethoven; "La vallee des Cloches" by Ravel; "Symphonic Etudes, op. 13" by Schumann.

The Schumann selection is made up of twelve Etudes in the form of variations, although some are written as separate etudes and are not variations of the theme. "The work demands especially a precise staccato chord technique and is brilliantly effective. Here Schumann reaches a peak in inventive genius and instrumental resource."

In the Beethoven piece are found severe demands also, but of a different type. It demands tremendous muscular and spiritual steadiness from the player.

Student Council Clarifies New Social Regulations

A party that is in a private home, is officially chaperoned, and is not given by an organized group does not require approval through the office of the Dean of Students.

Students may stay off campus after local social functions that do not require approval through the Office of the Dean of Students. Chaperones for these overnight visits are understood to be 1) older members of the student's family, 2) older relatives of another student, 3) adult resident friends at their homes. The "adult resident friends" must be far enough beyond college age to be able to assume full responsibility for the student staying with them; they cannot be former members or day students of a class that is still at Salem. The regular procedure of having the hostess extend an invitation through the Office is still followed for these overnights.

Students may visit in the homes of men friends only if there are chaperones present.

These changes give the students more freedom to use their own judgment. They will stay in effect as long as students show that these changes can work successfully.

Sophomore Class Will Wash Cars For A Dollar

The sophomore class is sponsoring a car wash Saturday afternoon, April 18 from 1:00 to 5:00. The girls will wash cars on back campus in front of the laundry and will charge one dollar per car.

A refreshment committee headed by Marji Jammer will sell snowballs for 10c a piece. Davidson, Wake Forest, Bowman Gray, and the Salem Faculty have been alerted by posters and handbills. Clare Davenport and Elaine Falls are the overall chairmen of the project. They have divided the class into four groups: "washing white walls," Mary Lou Brown; "rinsing cars," Marie Harris; "washing windows," Missy Allen; and "sweeping inside of cars," Debbie MacCarthy. Libby Smith is head of the committee making and distributing handbills.

The sophomores adopted a motto for their project: "The more cars, money, and boys, the better."

SNEA, Choral Ensemble, Music Club Elect Heads

Three club presidents, all rising seniors were elected this week.

Ann Beck, new SNEA president, says that she would like for the club to do something next year besides sponsor the movies, but has no definite plan yet. She wants the meetings next year to mean more to all the members, both juniors and seniors. By having the senior practice teachers give programs concerning problems that have arisen in their teaching, the juniors would better know what to expect in their senior year.

Music Club president, Nancy Jane Carroll has this in mind: "The Music Club should be for all students who are interested in music. Next year I hope that students, through the Music Club, can exchange ideas with other students and more experienced musicians. The programs will be concerned with exploring music's relationship to the other arts, and the ways in which we, as musicians, can contribute to the well-being of an entire community."

Meribeth Bunch, a voice major, is Chorale Ensemble president. When asked for her comments on the coming year, Meribeth said: "The Ensemble had been poorly planned. Margaret Fletcher has made a high step toward organizing it. I feel that the president is responsible for maintaining a good group spirit. We have only sung once for the student body this year, and I would like to let the students hear us more often. And, incidentally, we are giving a concert in Memorial Hall, April 27, at 8:30. Admission is $.50."

History Dept. Will Present "Luther" Movie

A great historical epic will be presented by the history department of Salem College. "Martin Luther," which has won world-wide acclaim as a documentary film, will be shown Tuesday night, April 21, at 8:00 o'clock in the Science Lecture Room. This exciting film is the story of Martin Luther and the reformation movement.

Since Hollywood refused to handle such a controversial subject, the film was made through the auspices of the Lutheran Church. The Augsburg Lutheran Church in Winston-Salem is lending this movie to Salem College.

W. U. S. Agent Speaks In Chapel On April 20

Mr. Leon Marion, representative of World University Service will be the guest speaker at assembly on April 20. Mr. Marion has done extensive work for World University Service both as a student and professionally. In addition to attending WUS conference abroad and visiting colleges and universities in several sections of the USA in behalf of WUS, he served from 1951 to 1953 as WUS secretary in the Central, Southern, Pacific Northwest and Pacific Southwest and Southwest regions.

From September, 1953 until June, 1954 and during the Fall of 1954, Mr. Marion did graduate work at Columbia University in international relations and international law. From February 1 to June 30, 1955 he served as a special agent for the National Student YMCA and YWCA on behalf of the Young Men's Conference of the Paris Centennial of the YMCA and the International Seminars sponsored by NSCY. During the summers of 1954 and 1955 he served as director of the College Summer Service Group. In 1955 this group had its largest enrollment in history.

He has spent three summers in Europe. In the summer of 1948, he and eight other students were the only American student group to fly into Berlin, then blocked by the Russians. In 1951 he was one of the American delegates to the international conference organized by World University Service in Norway. In 1952 he again spent the summer in Europe, bicycling across the Continent with stopovers at various meetings and conferences.

Mr. Marion is uniquely prepared for his new appointment as executive of the Southern Region of WUS. A graduate of Occidental College in 1951, he was active in WUS on his campus, served as Regional Chairman of the Pacific Southwest Area Student YMCA in his senior year, and as Vice-Chairman of the National Student Council of the YMCA in the same year.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Marion served thirty-two months with the navy. Twenty-four of those months were spent in the submarine service.

Y Auctions Students' Services

Have you ever been to an auction? Well here's your chance to not only buy but to sell, too. Do you need your hair cut or a hem taken up? Would you like to go to Farmer's Dairy? Or are you an expert hemmer or hair stylist or could you taxi a crowd of hungry girls to Farmer's Dairy yourself? In either case—join the fun!

The auction will be held Thursday, April 23 in chapel and is sponsored by the Y. Mr. Bray will be the auctioneer. Sunday night at vespers and Monday afternoon at chapel, a lady from World University Service will explain how the money from the auction will be used.

Some of the other services offered could be washing clothes or cars, making bed, ironing, parties sponsored by dorms, etc. Students offer services, and some of the faculty are going to also! Groups, dorms, classes, individuals—everyone is eligible. So put on your thinking caps and let your talents do some good for someone else. There is a sheet in each dorm on which to sign services to be auctioned.

Finance Board Proposes Rearranged '59-'60 Budget

The first meeting of the 1959-60 Finance Board was held April 14, 1959, with Churchill Jenkins, treasurer of Student Government presiding.

The topic of the meeting was discussion of a student budget for next year. The executive committee of the Finance Board met in March and made the three following recommendations for the new student budget.

(1) The Pierrettes will be allotted $.75 per student which is an increase of $.25 over last year's budget.

The reason for this is that the club is operating on a deficit due to expenditures for lights, costumes and a costume room, make-up, and stage platforms. These improvements are permanent and may be used by the student body as a whole.

(2) The Student Government allotment was cut to $.65 per student, which is a decrease of $.25 from last year.

Student Government has had an excess at the end of the past few years due to no deficit on the handbook, so a cut was possible.

(3) The May Day Committee allotment was cut to $.65 cents, a decrease of $.15 from last year.

In past years this committee has stayed well within its limits, and it is felt that sixty-five cents per student for one hour a year is sufficient.

The preceding budget has not been increased but has redistributed its funds in order to meet the needs of these three organizations.

An alternate budget was also presented in which IRS requested a four dollar increase per student in the budget to make it possible to secure big-name bands for Salem dances.

The Finance Board voted to recommend the budget not including the four dollar increase for IRS. This recommended budget will be sent to the Legislative Board who will refer it to the student body to make the final decision on the budget for next year.

Judicial Board Explains Rule About Groups

The Judicial Board at its meeting Monday stated the following rule clarifications:

Except when dating, only a group of at least three girls may be off campus after 7:30. When returning to campus from out of town, permission may be granted to ride in a taxi with less than three girls, but the Dean's office should be notified of this before the trip.

Students are also reminded that special permission from the Office of the Dean of Students must be obtained to walk after dark beyond the night campus limits. This means, for example, that even with a group of girls, special permission must be obtained to walk back from the show after dark.
