This is a total of $9,253.00.

Mr. Hill reminded the students that any purchase should be billed directly to the organization.

Alumnae Hear Ing-Marie, Lena

The alumnae will meet in Reidsville on October 29 for an area luncheon which will be held at the Country Club. Miss Hixon, Mrs. Heibredner, and Miss Marsh will attend. Two of our special students, Ing-Marie Fredrikson and Lena Lundgren, are the invited visitors from Salem for this event.

Caroline Easley and Peggy Huntley accompanied Dr. Gramley, Dean Hixson and Mrs. Richard E. Shore, president of the Alumnae Association to a meeting of the Charlotte Alumnae Thursday afternoon, Oct. 22. They spoke on the senior aspect of Salem's academic life, while Dr. Hixon discussed the views of the other classes.

Fraser Speaks To Canterbury

Everyone is invited to come to the Canterbury Club meeting at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 28. The speaker will be the Rev. Thomas A. Fraser. His topic will be "The Episcopal Church and Education".

Eight Seniors Discover "There's No Place Like Home" In The Pfohl House

By Betsy Gatling

There is an old Chinese proverb that goes something like this:

"A hundred men may make an encampment, but it takes a woman to make a home."

This seems to express pretty well the way we "women" feel about living in the Pfohl House. We are situated in a two-story brick home just behind Miss Newlin and the infirmary.

There are eight of us who plan to graduate, for one reason or another, in January—five out of eight reasons being matrimony in the early, early spring. The remaining three will be "going places and doing things", if I may borrow one of Monitor's pet phrases. We enjoy our living quarters on second floor—four spacious rooms with adjoining closets in each, two baths, a water cooler, new study tables and chairs, mahogany dressers, a modern pay telephone, and Mary Louise Lineberger and Carolyn Ray can even walk around on a green carpet in their room. I tell you, girls, be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.

Mrs. Janet Shearin is our house mother and is teaching the sixth grade out at South Park School. A meticulous housekeeper, she likes to surprise us with chocolate fudge cake or coconut-lemon cake hot from the kitchen oven while we watch Playhouse 90 on Thursday nights.

Millie Fary is Pfohl's president and keeps us posted on what's going on with the rest of the world. But don't misunderstand . . . We

Omar Khayyám writes a new jingle

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

It's what's up front that counts
If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should"?

We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of a pure white filter Winston has Filter-Blend—a special selection of mild flavorful tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking.

Winston is designed to taste good. Or, as Omar puts it:

The Moving Lighter lights;
and having lit,
Flicks off. Then you draw on IT,
And bit by bit smoking pleasure mounts;
With Filter-Blend up front,
Winston's got what counts!
