Dr. Jones, Rondthaler Lectures, Will Speak On "Atoms, Space And People"

Dr. William H. Jones, Professor of Chemistry at Emory University, will speak in assembly Tuesday, March 14 as the Rondthaler Lecturer. The topic of Dr. Jones' talk is Atoms, Space, and People.

Dr. Jones received his B.A. degree from Emory University in 1924, and he received his M.A. and Ph. D. degrees from Princeton University. A fellow of the American Association of Science, Dr. Jones is the author of a number of articles published in scientific and scholarly journals; he is founder and first editor of the Filter Press, monthly publication of the Georgia section of the American Chemical Society.

Well known in the fields of research chemistry, laboratory technology, and nuclear physics, Dr. Jones has been active in atomic bomb research, and he was a laboratory director in one of the war time uranium processing plants at Oak Ridge for a year. He has done extensive research at Oak Ridge with the 86-inch cyclotron, and the cyclotron of the "heavy particle" type.

In January, 1958, Dr. Jones was appointed to the newly-created post of summer school director at Emory University. He is responsible for coordinating all summer school plans, and he assists in developing expanded summer programs in the areas of science, mathematics, and languages. He is continuing his research and teaching in chemistry on a part time basis.

In addition to his lecture in assembly, Dr. Jones will speak to a joint meeting of the IRC and the Lablings on Monday, March 13; he will also speak to the senior physical chemistry class on Radio Chemistry. During his stay, Dr. Jones will be available for private conferences with students.

IRS Nominates Salemites For Best Dressed

IRS announces the nominees for Salem's entry in Glamour Magazine's "Ten Best Dressed College Girls in America" contest. They are Bonnie Bean, Candy Chew, Ann Davidson, Nancy Joyner, Martha Jo Phifer, Sandy Sheets, Martha Tallman, Ann West, and Craig White. Also nominated but unable to accept were Barbara Edwards, Lynn Robertson, and Jette Seear. The student body will vote on the final entry Monday, March 13, at lunch.

The top ten selected from participating schools will win an all-expense paid (including transportation) two week trip to New York in June. They will be selected by a panel of Glamour editors on the basis of three photographs; one of the entry in a typical on-campus outfit, one in an off-campus daytime dress, and the third in a party dress.

Recommended criteria for selecting Salem's entry are:

1. Good figure, beautiful posture.
2. Clean, shining, well-kept hair.
3. Imagination in managing a clothes budget.
4. Good grooming—not just neat, but impeccable.
5. Appropriate campus look (she's in line with local customs).
6. A clear understanding of her fashion type.
7. Individuality in her use of colors, accessories.
8. A workable wardrobe plan.
9. A neat way with make-up (enough to look pretty but not overdone).
10. Appropriate—not rah-rah-look for off-campus occasions.

Gramleys Give Senior Banquet

On March 16th at 6:00 p.m., Dr. and Mrs. Gramley will give the annual Senior Banquet in the Club Dining Room. After the banquet everyone will go to the Gramley's home for a social hour.

Dr. Gramley will speak to the seniors as will Janet Yarborough, president of the senior class. Mr. Bray, senior class advisor, will also speak. Mrs. Bray will be a special guest at the banquet.

Sallie Paxton

Students Elect Paxton Student Body President

Sallie Paxton, a religion major from Rocky Mount, was elected President of the Student Government in assembly on Tuesday. Sallie said that she was "just overwhelmed" upon hearing of her election.

As Student Government President, Sallie will try to carry out the ideas expressed in her speech at the kick-off banquet on Monday night. She hopes to see a depth of activities around the square and a new breadth beyond the square. On campus she would like to encourage students to sit in on Legislative Board meetings, and she would like to set up a President's Forum which would work with Legislative Board. Our new Stee Gee President would also like to see the new NSA Committee perfected, and she favors giving freshmen a full vote for the NSA Co-ordinator.

In widening Salem's view beyond the square, Sallie would like to see Salem participate in more conferences, both those sponsored by the Student Government and those sponsored by other organizations.

Sallie served as treasurer of the freshman class, as vice-president of her sophomore class, and is now president of the junior class. She is a marshal and a member of the Order of the Scorpion. An Honor Society member, she is also stage manager for the Pierrette production of School for Scandal.

Panel Evaluates Assembly Series

Mary Lu Nuckols, Felicity Craig, Jane Pendleton, Betsy Hicks, Beverly Heward, and Peggy Brown will be the members of a panel to evaluate the recent series of chapel programs on Twentieth Century Culture. They will discuss some of the ideas presented by the speakers, their development and value.

This discussion is an attempt to relate the whole series to the college community, to show some opinions of the problems and the way in which they affect the college student.

The program will be a discussion among the panel members which will be opened for questions at its conclusion.

Speakers for the series on Twentieth Century Culture have been Dr. Stewart, Modern Philosophy; Mr. Sandresky, Contemporary Music; Mr. Shewmake, Modern Art; Miss Battle, Modern Drama; and Professor Herman Salinger, Duke, Comparative Literature.

Salem College Trio Gives Performance March 13

The Salem College Trio will present the Mary Jones Memorial Scholarship Concert Monday, March 13, at 8:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

The Trio consists of Eugene Jacobowsky, violinist; Charles Medlin, cellist; and Hans Heidemann, pianist. They will play the Beethoven Trio in E major, Opus 70, No. 2, and the Brahms Trio in B major, Opus 8.

Mr. Jacobowsky is assistant professor of violin. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the Juilliard School of Music and his Masters degree from Columbia University. He is concert master of the Winston-Salem Symphony.

Mr. Heidemann received his Bachelor of Music degree from Salem College and his Piano Diploma from the Juilliard School of Music. He is assistant professor of piano.

Mr. Medlin is an instructor in cello and piano. He is principle cellist with the Winston-Salem Symphony and the Brevard Festival Orchestra. He has studied at the University of North Carolina and the Juilliard School of Music.

This is the only Winston-Salem performance by the trio and the only one at which donations will be accepted for the Mary Jones Memorial Scholarship Fund. The fund was established eight years ago for the purpose of providing a scholarship for a Winston-Salem student in the preparatory music department at Salem. The music faculty hopes to increase the amount of the capital fund from $1,600 to $5,000 so that the scholarship can be on a full yearly basis.
