

The Salemite

Volume XLI

Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., Friday, May 12, 1961

Number 23

Many Awards Presented At Salem Closing Assembly Program May 24

The agenda of closing chapel on May 23rd will be the annual presentation of awards to outstanding students.

The Pierrettes will present four certificates of merit awarded to people on the production staff who have worked on two plays in the past two years, and the Pierrette award for an outstanding job in acting in one of the plays this year.

Two foreign student certificates will be presented to Ricky Eikendal and Meggi Schultz for their year of study at Salem.

The President's Prizes awarded each year include a fifty-dollar award to one student in each of the fifteen departments. These departments are art, biology, chemistry, classics, drama, economics-sociology, education-psychology, English, history, home economics, mathematics, music, modern languages, physical education, and religion. The other five awards are as follows: a prize to an outstanding freshman in English, one for the best sophomore research paper, an award for the best work in Music Theory, and awards to the freshman and junior with the highest academic record. The freshman and junior academic awards cannot be presented until all the averages are obtained.

The Katherine B. Rondthaler

Awards will be offered by the Alumnae Association to students for achievement in music, art and literature. Last year the Alumnae Association gave $100 for two silver trays awarded to the two senior winners.

Two H. A. Pfohl Awards are presented each year. One is given to a senior who has shown outstanding citizenship on campus, Christian character, loyalty, and service to Salem. The second Pfohl Award will be presented to a member of the faculty who has demonstrated service, loyalty, Christian influence, and effective teaching. Both the student and the teacher will receive $100.

During Awards Assembly the senior class will present its Last Will and its class gift. The annual staff also hopes to announce the dedication of Sights and Insights.

Tanglewood Park Opens New 1961 Summer Drama Workshop

Tanglewood Park will open as a new feature for the 1961 summer a Drama Workshop, designed to give a short intensive course in acting, scene design, history and philosophy of the theatre. Students will observe a full-scale theatre in operation and work with professionals.

The workshop will be held August 17-27. It is being sponsored by the drama departments of Salem and Wake Forest and by the Winston-Salem Little Theatre.

The workshop staff will consist of persons highly skilled in various dramatic arts. Although the staff cannot be announced at this time, the Park has made contact with several prominent people in the educational field and several in professional theatre.

The minimum eligible age (no maximum) is 16 years or completion of sophomore year of high school. Applications are on a first-come, first-served basis as only 40 residents students can be accepted.

Fees, which include housing (for resident students), food, and admission to two plays are $70 for residents, $50 for day students. Day students (9 a.m.-9 p.m.) will be given free transportation.

Prevette And Frick Will Present Piano Recitals

Mary Prevette will give her graduating piano recital on Friday, May 19, at 8:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall. Her program will include selections by four outstanding composers: Bach, "Prelude and Fugue in F minor" and "Well-Tempered Clavier, Book I"; Beethoven, "Thirty-two Variations in C Minor"; three Chopin Preludes; and "Variations Symphonique" (concerto) by Franck.

Mary, who is from Salisbury, N. C., began studying piano "later than most", in seventh grade. At Salem she has studied under Clemens Sandresky for four years. After graduation Mary plans to teach piano. Other than that, her plans are indefinite.

Everyone is cordially invited to this recital and to the reception which will follow immediately in the Friendship Rooms of Strong Dormitory.

* * *

On Monday night, May 22, at 7:30 in Memorial Hall, Doty Frick will give her senior recital. Doty will receive her Bachelor of Music degree this June. She is a student of Hans Heidemann.

The program includes: Sonata in D Minor, Op. 31, No. 2 by Beethoven; five Chopin Etudes: "A Flat Major, Op. 25 No. 1," "E Major, Op. 10 No. 3," "G Flat Major, Op. 10 No. 5," "C Sharp Minor, Op. 25 No. 7," and "C Minor, Op. 10 No. 12"; and "Concerto in G Minor, Op. 25," by Mendelssohn.

Doty and her mother, Mrs. C. H. Frick, live in Bassett, Virginia. After graduation, Doty plans to be married in the late summer.

Everyone is cordially invited to a reception in the Day Student Center after the recital.

Art Students Display Work

By Monday, May 15, the senior art exhibits will be on display. Barbara Edwards, Jette Seear, and Suzanne Taylor will have their works on exhibit in the Student Union, the Day Student Center and the stairwell of Main Hall.

Oil paintings, woodcuts and etchings of other students will be shown in the basement of Main Hall and in the Music Hall. These will include works by Betty Black, Florence Evens, Eloise Upchurch, Katherine Parrish, Julia O'Neal, Beverly Heward, Nancy Brawley, Catherine Eller, Sis Gillam, Sylvia Gooding, Brenda Hughes, Elizabeth Irwin, Dorothy Lovell, Virginia Padgett, Eleanor Quick, Carolyn Tyson, Sarah Wills, and Andra Wright.

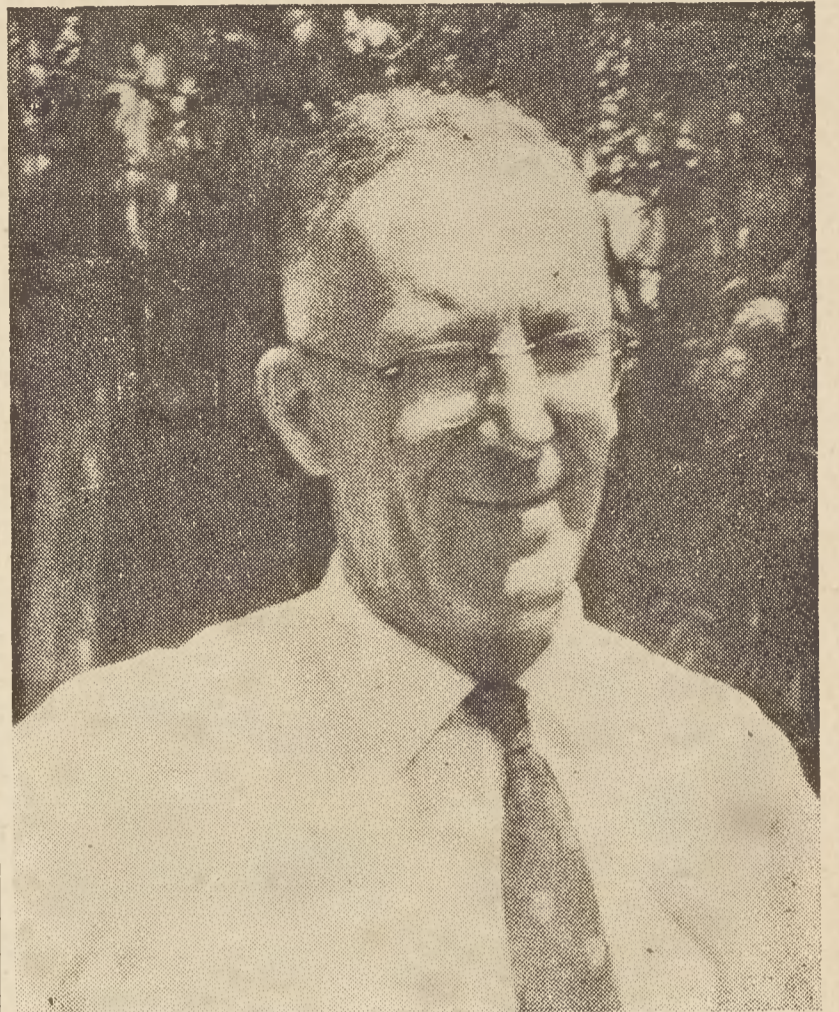

Sculpture and pottery, made by the ceramics class, will be exhibited also. Anne Jewell, Betsy Davis, Cindy Shearin, Mary Ann Porter, Sheena Warren and Deedee Headley will have works displayed in the basement of Main Hall.

Soph. Car Wash Held May 13

A car wash will be held Saturday, May 13, by the sophomore class. The project, to be carried out in the laundry parking lot, is for the purpose of raising money for the Refugee Student Fund. Cars will be washed from 10:00-4:00, and each "wash job" will cost $1.50.

Notices advertising the car wash have been sent to Bowman Gray and to Wake Forest fraternities and WPEG will send a mobile unit to Salem during the day. The Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce has sent a letter to the sophomores congratulating them on the project designed to raise money for the Refugee Program.

Car wash chairman Anne West commented, "The car wash will not be called off unless it is actually raining. We would appreciate the help of all students in making this project a success."

Rev. Patrick Craig Will Deliver Bacc. Sermon

The Rev. Patrick Craig, Moravian minister at Bethlehem Church in Jamaica, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at Salem on June 4. The Rev. Craig, whose daughter Felicity is a member of this year's graduating class, will arrive in Winston-Salem on Saturday, June 3 for the graduation exercises.

Born in England, the Rev. Craig attended the Moravian School at Fulneck, Yorkshire, from 1917 to 1925; from 1926 to 1927, he attended Bradford Grammar School, ancient school of England; from 1927 to 1932, he studied under Professor C. H. Dodd at Manchester University, earning his B. A. and B. D. degrees.

From 1932 until 1951, the Rev. Craig, the son of Moravian missionaries, served as a minister in England at Wilshire, Lancashire, and Yorkshire. In 1951 he began his ministry in Jamaica at Bethlehem Training College, a training school for Jamaican teachers.

In 1958, the Rev. Craig was elected as a member of P. E. C. for the Jamaica Province of the Moravian Church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

All difficulties in exam schedules should be taken care of immediately by seeing Miss Simpson.

All required work for this semester must be completed and handed in by 6:00 p.m. the day before Reading Day, May 23.

After Reading Day, students who do not plan to return next year should fill out withdrawal blanks in order to get an honorable dismissal from Salem.

Information will be put in student boxes concerning the closing of college including the amount and the way in which student property may be left on campus.

* * *

Dr. Balkrishna Gokhale, visiting professor of Asian Studies at Salem, Wake Forest, and Winston-Salem Teacher's College, will be the speaker at the Pi Alpha Theta meeting on Wednesday, May 12. The meeting will be held in the Strong Friendship Rooms at 5:30.

* * *

On May 23 the Alumnae Association will hold a picnic for this year's senior class. Mrs. F. Eugene Vogler, Jr., will be host to the seniors. Special guests will be Mr. Bray, the class advisor, and Mrs. Bray, and Dr. and Mrs. Gramley.

* * *

Today, May 12, the day students will hold their annual spring picnic. The day students along with their dates will meet at Miller Park at 6:00 p.m. for hot dogs, hamburgers, and all the trimmings. Beth Fordham is in charge of the menu and Mr. Sanders, day student advisor, will chaperone.

Ezell Gives Organ Recital

Kay Ezzell will present her sophomore organ recital in Old Chapel at 7:30 p.m. on May 22. For her recital selections she has chosen Daquen, Fugue from "Prelude and Fugue in F Major" by Bach, a German selection by David, and Franck: "First Movement, First Symphony."

Kay, who has studied organ for five years, is presently under the instruction of Mr. Calvin Hampton. This will be her first college recital. After graduation Kay plans to work as minister of music in a church.

Jr. - Sr. Party Held May 18

The senior class will be the guests of the junior class at the annual junior-senior party on Thursday, May 18. This year, instead of the traditional formal banquet, the party will be an informal get-together at Tanglewood Park. There will be a barbecue supper served, entertainment and recreation planned, and gifts for each senior. Special guests will include Dr. and Mrs. Gramley, Dean Hixon, Dean Heidbreder, Miss Battle, and Mr. Bray, class advisors. It is hoped that this change to a casual affair will prove to be more enjoyable.