Kay Kearns is a junior from High Point. Graduating from Salem Academy, Kay came to the college where she has been busy with her double major of English-sociology-economics.

Her activities on campus this year include being assistant editor of Sights and Insights and secretary of the Y Cabinet. Last year besides being a representative to the Y Cabinet, she was stage manager for Christ in the Concrete City.

Kay and three other Salem students plan to work a year in London after they graduate, and then to travel with the money they will have made.

The other junior who was asked to be a member of Phi Alpha Theta is Marsha Ray. Marsha, a history-English major from Oxford, is a marshal and secretary of her class.

After graduation, she plans to either teach English and history or go to graduate school.

Nancy Peter, a math major and history minor, is chairman of Judi-

Salem Seniors Join Electorate Of Who's Who In U. S. Colleges

Six seniors have been elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities for 1962. The Salem nominees are: Betty Cox from Laurinburg; Linda Leaird of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida; Libbie Hatley of Albemarle; Sallie Paxton from Rocky Mount; Nancy Peter of Kingsport, Tennessee; and Trisha Weathers of Augusta, Georgia.

The students were nominated on the basis of qualifications set up by the Who's Who National Office in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. These qualities were considered:

1. The student's excellence and sincerity in scholarship.
2. The student's leadership and participation in extra-curricular activities.
3. The student's citizenship and service to the school.
4. The student's promise of future usefulness to business and society.

Betty Cox was secretary of the freshman class, president of the sophomore class, secretary of Student Government her junior year and is vice-president of Stee Gee this year. She is majoring in Spanish and is practicing teaching in the third grade at South Park Elementary school this semester.

Linda Leaird is an active member of the Westminster Fellowship and the YWCA. She was president of the Fellowship her junior year and is currently Ecumenical Relations Co-ordinator for the synod of Westminster Fellowship of North Carolina. Linda was a member of the Y Cabinet her sophomore and junior years and is Denominational Co-ordinator of the Y this year. Her junior year she was on the May Day Committee, the NSA Committee, and was SNEA secretary.

A member of the Order of the Scorpion, Linda is a Spanish-history major and plans to practice teach Spanish next semester. After graduation she hopes to teach or be a social worker with Spanish-speaking people. Linda would like to work with the refugees in Miami.

Libbie Hatley is president of Phi

Alpha Theta and president of SNEA. She is a member of the Honor Society and IRS. An Oslo Scholar her junior year, Libbie is vice-president of Humanities Club, having been president last year. Libbie is an English-history major. She is practicing teaching at Northwest High School and hopes to go to graduate school after graduation.

Trisha Weathers has been an

Sallie went to Norway last summer as an Oslo Scholar. She is a member of the Honor Society and Order of the Scorpion.

A math major, Nancy Peter is Chairman of Judicial Board. Nancy was a hall president in Clewell her sophomore year and was a junior class representative to Legislative Board. She was assistant business manager of the Salemite first semester last year and treasurer of Student Government second semester.

A member of the Honor Society and Order of the Scorpion, Nancy was initiated into Phi Alpha Theta last night.

YWCA Sponsors Week Of Religious Emphasis

Religious Emphasis Week, November 8-15, will be observed at Salem College. The theme of this year's Religious Emphasis Week is "You in the Crisis Today."

Religious Emphasis Week is held each year by the Y as a time set aside to emphasize and evaluate our religious concerns as individuals and as collective members of Salem College. We come to college in order to grow and expand our knowledge and yet so often we are prone to nurture our intellectual and social knowledge and entirely neglect our spiritual knowledge. Because of this fact, Religious Emphasis Week aims at providing a time for serious questioning, possible doubting and personal evaluation of our religious beliefs and values.

Events scheduled during this week are as follows:

- Wed. November 8
10:00 p.m. "What do you really care about"
Trisha Weathers, speaker
- Thurs. Nov. 9
5:45 p.m. Trisha Weathers, speaker

6:30 p.m. Denominational Meetings

Sun. Nov. 12
5:00 p.m. Vespers — Dr. Hill, speaker

Tues. Nov. 14
12:10 p.m. Assembly — Dr. Horton Davies, special speaker

6:30 p.m. Discussion led by Dr. Davies

Wed. Nov. 15
3:30-5:30 p.m. Coffee in the Day Student Center for Dr. Davies

6:00 p.m. Dinner — Y Committee members and workers at special tables

6:30 p.m. Final Discussion by Dr. Davies

Little Chapel will be open the entire week and students are urged to take advantage of the quietness of the chapel in order to meditate. Dr. Davies will be on campus all day Tuesday and Wednesday, November 14 and 15, for the benefit of students who would like to talk with him.
