FITS Climaxes Beanies, Speeches, Games, Skits

Founders' Day held on Thursday, October 4, commemorated the 191st year in the history of Salem College.

Afternoon activities began after Reverend Clark Thompson spoke in assembly on Salem's Moravian background. After lunch each class dressed in their class colors and competed in games and races. Cheerleaders provided the necessary leadership for the events, while trash cans, student voices, and home-made drums offered boisterous cheer.

Evening activities were held in Old Chapel with each class presenting a short skit based on children's stories. Freshmen students presented Peter Pan while the sophomore class imitated Winnie The Pooh. Juniors characterized Cinderella after which the seniors performed The Wise Old Owl.

Class songs written especially for the occasion were sung following the skits, after which the judges announced the winning events in the day's activities.

Wurtele Offers Faculty Recital

Miss Nancy Wurtele will give a piano recital Monday, October 8, at 3:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall. Her program includes Toccata in D Major by Bach, Sonata in E Flat Major, Op. No. 3 by Beethoven, Piano Pieces, Op. 119 by Brahms, Three Bulgarian Dances from the Skrosmos, B. VI by Bartok, and Ballade in G Minor, Op. 23 by Chopin.

Born and reared in Los Angeles, California, Miss Wurtele received her Bachelor of Music degree in piano from the University of Southern California and her Master of Science degree from Julliard where she studied under Rosina Lhevinne.

She was awarded a Fulbright Travel Scholarship and an Italian government grant to Rome where she studied at the Conservatory of Saint Cecilia. This is her first year of teaching after returning from Rome.

in the Phi Chi Medical Fraternity were Diane Schull, Ethel Perry, Marsha Forrester, Robbin Causey, Susie Rablen, Ellen Heflin, Myrtie Moon Bilbro, Penny Prusa, G. G. Sapp, Dougie Heinrich, and Jane Hedgpeth. Numerous students went to the parties given by Wake Forest fraternities.

Barbara White, Allison Pollard, Kit King, Claudia Crawford, and Jan Crawley went to State for the Clemson game.

The freshmen are all raving about the wonderful time they had at the dance given by the sophomores. They especially enjoyed the spotlight dances. The juniors in South also entertained their "little sisters" with an informal get-together in the TV room while Strong gave a pizza party for their "little sisters."
