

The Salemite

Volume XLIV

Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., Friday, September 27, 1963

Number 1

Top Scholars Receive Recognition

Honors and awards for academic Cacky Hubbard, classical langual Junior Jerry Johnson received the achievement during the past semesages; Jerry Johnson, home eco-Gordon Gray Award for highest

Mary Stewart Rosenblatt, biology; junior average.

ter and the past school year were nomics; Gretchen Wampler, music; sophomore average, and senior announced September 19 at the Mary Dameron, physical education; Marty Paisley was awarded the opening assembly of Salem's 193rd Jerry Johnson, religion; Dottie Mollie Cameron Tuttle Award. session by Academic Dean Ivy M. Girling, freshman English; Betty scholarship. The Salem scholars her graduating class. are Barbara Hooten from Fredefrom Elkin; and Becky Scott from Winston-Salem.

Three Freshmen Receive Four Year Scholarships

Each girl was selected on the basis of her college board scores, high school records, references, and nounces the arrival of an ice ma- Carole Blackburn, Judy Gillespie, a theme telling why she wanted the chine which has been placed in the and Carol Weidner. scholarship. The precise amount of basement utility room of Clewell. to $1200 a year, depending on need. the concessions sold in the dormithe scholarship annually.

Barbara, who would like to be a mathematician, selected Salem because of friends here. She was and secretary of the honor society. the travel expenses of the Salem and Ann Strain. She would like to pursue some of delegate attending the NSA Conout the type and hours of work ex- was paid by the committee. pected of her.

to teach college math after com- Susanne Boone, Patsy Askew, K. Hamilton Gives pleting a Masters Degree. Becky Mary Alice Teague, Margaret chose Salem because a favorite English teacher in high school was an alumna and spoke well of her advisor. alma mater. Also the idea of a small school appealed to Becky, who served in high school as president of the National Honor Society, always wanted Ann to attend freshmen, 45 special students, and Salem. Ann participated in extra- 2 foreign students.

Three freshman math majors curricular activities in high school have been selected as the first re- as Chief Marshal, president of the cipients of Salem's new four-year Tri-Hi-Y, and as salutatorian of

Campus With Ice

The ice is free of charge.

Both Becky and Ann would like tee was composed of Chairman Bourdeaux, and Mrs. Heidbreder, Founder's Day Talk probably reach 500 after all special spring will be installed. Ann, too, was influenced in her students have completed registra-

Welcome to Salem! Greeting the freshmen as they arrive on Sunday were members of the Orientation Committee.

Seniors receiving Class Honors Bullard, sophomore research; Mar- for 1962-63 were Frances Bailey, Winners of the 1962 President's garet Persons, highest freshman Becky Gaston, Margy Harris, Prizes, announced last year, include average; and Nancy Knott, highest Nancy Hutchins, Betsy Johnson, Tish Johnston, Nancy Knott, Ann Marie Martin, Margaret Perkins, Susan Purdie, Alice Reid, Mary Stewart Rosenblatt, Frances Speas, and Wookie Workman. In addition to the preceding, those winning places on the Dean's List include Jo Dunbar, Paula Macpherson, Marty Paisley, Anne Romig, Connie Rucker and Anne Simons.

Juniors Susanne Boone, Gaye Brown, Daphne Dukate, Barbara Gardner, Nancy Gardner, Cacky Hubbard, Jerry Johnson, Lynne ricksburg, Virginia; Ann McNeill Committee Furnishes McClement, and Wendy McGlinn were on the Dean's List for two semesters, thus gaining Class Honors. On the Dean's List for The Concessions Committee an- the second semester only were

Sophomore Class Honors were atthe scholarships ranges from $200 With the commission earned from tained by Brenda Bethel, Ceci Boren, Anne Cleino, Betsy Fowler, If satisfactory grades are main- tories last year, the committee was Judy Gilliam, Judy Kincheloe, Lucy tained by the girls, they can renew able to purchase the ice machine McCallum, Barbara Mallard, Marfor use by the whole student body. garet Persons, Phyllis Sherman, Linda Tunstall, and Gretchen Wamler. In addition, the Dean's The committee also donated a List for the second semester inactive in high school as a cheer- $500 scholarship to be used at the cluded Dottie Girling, Kay Isenleader, secretary of the senior class, administration's discretion. Part of hour, Jan Norman, Tavy Seawell

> Announcement of the three fresh-Hooten, Ann McNeill, and Becky Last year's Concessions Commit- Scott, terminated the list of awards.

Assembly program on Tuesday, October 1, will be Student Government meeting. At this time those Dean Hixson has announced that members of Legislative and Judicial professor. She holds a B. A. from B. M. from the University of Louisjunior marshal, and member of the total enrollment of Salem will Boards who were not installed last New York State Teachers College ville and an M. M. from Yale. She of the Salem community and col- in history, received his B. A. from work.

New faces seen around the square are Dr. Margaret E. Weitzner, Mr. Errol M. Clauss, and Mrs. Blevyn H. Wheeler who are among Salem's new faculty.

Nine Faculty Join Staff

her interests at Salem after finding ference in Bloomingfield, Indiana, man scholarship winners, Barbara Mrs. Blevyn H. Wheeler replaces tant at Emory. Dr. Paine for the first semester. The Science Department wel-at West Virginia University, and the University of Michigan. one year at Salem Academy.

Gettysburg College and his M. A. from Emory University, where he Nine new faculty members have has begun work on his Ph. D. He joined the Salem College teaching has served as instructor, graduate staff. In the English Department, teaching fellow, and research assis-

She received her B. A. from Wake comes Mr. Donald E. McLeod as Forest College and her M. A. from assistant professor of biology. Mr. the University of North Carolina. McLeod has taught at Brevard Her teaching experience includes High School and Brevard College. four years at Gray, Monroe, and He received his A. B. from Guil-Oakboro High Schools, two years ford College and his M. S. from

In the School of Music, Mrs. Margaret E. Weitzner joins the George Henry Horne replaces Mr. Modern Language staff as assistant Heideman for the year. She has a and M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from has had private study in New York Thursday, October 3, the Found- the University of Wisconsin. She City and Marlboro School of Music. choice of Salem by an alumna, her tion. Earlier this week the enroll- er's Day speaker will be Dr. Ken- taught previously at the University Her experience includes teaching mother, who is active in the Salem ment totalled 495, with 95 seniors, neth Hamilton. A retired bishop Alumnae Association and who had 95 juniors, 114 sophomores, 144 of the Moravian Church, Dr. Ham School.

Lagrier this week the entoner's Day speaker will be Dr. Kenof Wisconsin, New York State piano at the University of LouisTeachers College and Carmel High ville, William Woods College, and Yale University Music School, as ilton is familiar with the history Mr. Errol M. Clauss, instructor well as private teaching and solo

Mrs. Betty J. Crossley (B. M., Indiana University; M. M., Eastman School of Music; Ph. D. in progress) comes to Salem as assistant professor of music. She taught at Grinnell College for five years and Augustana College for two years. She has played first violin with many symphonies and has served as concert mistress under Leonard Bernstein and Charles

Mr. Stanley Lewis, instructor in flute, comes to Salem after having taught in the Fulton and Murray County schools in Georgia and at the Guilford Musical Arts Center. He holds the B. M. and M. M. degrees from Peabody Conservatory of Music and has done graduate study at Georgia State College.

Mrs. Marilyn Stowers (B. A., Atlantic Christian; M. Ed., Womans College, University of North Caroany one of 51 countries, as well as good health. Preference is given school for eight years and is supertuition and maintenance for one to applicants under 35 years of age. visor of student teachers in elemen-

Mr. James E. Burgess, who holds other government grants offered tained from Dean Ivy Hixson. In- a certificate in social work from cooperatively by the U. S. (which dividual department heads have the University of North Carolina, lectures in juvenile delinquency at Salem College.

Government Gives Grants For Graduate Research In Fifty-One Countries

Only a few more weeks remain maintenance); and Travel-Only Competition for the scholarships, donor or foreign government. dents under the Fulbright-Hays are: U. S. citizenship, a bachelor's academic year, two other types of Application forms and further in- tary education at Salem College. try (which provides tuition and tunities in particular fields.

n which to apply for a 1964-65 awards which supplement main-U. S. Government grant for grad-tenance and tuition scholarships nate study or research abroad, awarded by a university, private

Act, is administered by the Insti- degree or its equivalent in profestute of International Education. sional training, language ability In addition to full grants, which commensurate with the demands of provide round-trip transportation to the proposed study project, and grants are available: Joint U. S./ formation for students may be obprovides travel) and a foreign coun- lists of countries offering oppor-