

Clubs Active On Campus

Ann Wilson, Jan Norman and Lynn Hall practice for the Dansalem recital. This club is open to all students.

Home Economics Club meets on the second Thursday of each month. Discussing the programs for the future are the following: seated; Marty Paisley, President Irene Rose, and Bunnie Salsbury. Standing are Sarah Jolitz and Jerry Johnson. The monthly programs center around the new horizons in home economics.

Marianne Wilson and Linda Hodges, active members of the Lablings, prepare for the monthly round of speakers and discussions.

Dr. B. G. Gokhale spoke at the International Relations Club Thursday, October 17, on the conflict in South Viet Nam. The IRC is open to all interested students. Programs are held every third Thursday night at which time panels, debates, and speakers discuss current issues.

Senior Landis Miller practices for her role in "For Heaven's Sake" which will be given November 14, 15, and 16. Pierrettes is open to all interested students.

Elsken Rutgers, Betty Bullard, Celia da Gama and Susie Robinson were on a panel discussion for the Humanities Club meeting Tuesday, October 22. Humanities Club meets once a month to hear speakers and panels discussions on literature, art, and music. The club is open to everyone.