

May Court Reigns

By Sterling Winstead

May Day '68 at Salem College was ushered in by the sound of the Guilford College Pipers. These four boys, complete with kilts and bagpipes, added to the atmosphere of the "Moor O' the May" setting. The Scottish songs and dances were from the Broadway musical "Brigadoon" which Chris Connor, a senior from Charlotte and chairman of May Day, used as the theme.

After the pageant, the IRS reception was a very popular place for the thirsty cast and spectators. The Melas II, DeeDee Geraty and Linda Camp, who sang at the reception, added to a very enjoyable time. Dr. Kelly, Mr. McLeod, and Mr. Michie along with their children proved to be their most ardent audience!

A buffet dinner served in the refectory called to a close the very successful day.

Special thanks go to Mr. Yarborough, Dr. Welch, Candy Stell, Dr. Henry Hood and Chris Connor for their help and time.

ple are simply left alone to oust Communists of their own accord. Also, with the new era of racism which is rising, the U. S. is less apt to be criticized if other countries are allowed to initiate action of their own before we act.

The point was also made that a powerful China cannot be contained, or is this desirable. China has held great sway over the nations of Southeast Asia in the past, and probably will have even more influence in the future.

In foreign policy, consistency for consistency's sake is not desirable, Dr. Tilman added. Each time the government in a country changes, we should re-evaluate our policy toward that country. The new government may often be entirely unrelated to the old one, so our policy should be changed accordingly.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WRA will have its annual Student-Faculty Golf Tournament Tuesday, May 14, at 4:30 at Tanglewood's Par 3 Course. Prizes will be awarded at the picnic supper immediately following the tournament. All faculty and students are invited to participate. See Candy Stell or Dianne Dailey.

lab work, mostly in the summer, since her winters have been kept busy with attending and teaching school.

Though the Weilands have no children (as yet), they did have a third member of the family—a St. Bernard—who, unfortunately, can't go to Michigan with them.

Mrs. Sally Rackley, a member of the history department for the past three years, is going to Duke University next year as a student for her doctorate. She will be a full-time student for one year and will serve one year in residency. She hopes to continue teaching at Salem. Mrs. Rackley, who teaches Latin and ancient history commented that she will feel funny on the other side of the desk next year, but that it is a good idea to change sides occasionally.

Miss Paula Kozicki plans to leave for an entirely different reason. She is getting married on June 7 in Jacksonville, Fla. Her fiance will graduate in the spring from the Law School of UNC-CH. Miss Kozicki, who teaches Comparative Government and Western Civilization, plans to keep working next year in Raleigh where her husband will be working for the State Supreme Court. When asked to comment on her year at Salem she said, "I'll be glad to get married, but sorry to leave, because Salem is one of the best places to be in North Carolina."
