99 Seniors To Participate In Salem Graduation Activities

Although the actual commencement exercises are scheduled for Sunday afternoon, June 7, the Senior class will be involved in many rehearsals and activities prior to that all-important day.

Rehearsals for the Baccalaureate service and the awarding of diplomas to the 99 Seniors are scheduled June 5. These hours of mastering the shaking of right hands and receiving a diploma in the left will be followed the next day by the 84th annual meeting of the General Alumnae Association in which Seniors will be officially inducted. This ceremony will be held in Hanes Auditorium at 11 a.m. and will be followed by the Alumnae Luncheon at 1 p.m. in the College Dining Room. That evening at 6 p.m. there will be a supper on the lawn honoring Seniors, their parents, and faculty. Following the supper, the class will present "The Follies" at 8 p.m. in Hanes Auditorium. The Baccalaureate Service scheduled for 11 Sunday morning in Home Moravian Church. The address will be given by Rev. James C. Hughes of Home Moravian Church. Commencement exercises will follow at 3 p.m. in Hanes Auditorium. The address will be given by Dr. Jerry L. Surratt, Dean, Wingate College, Wingate, N. C., a former faculty member at Salem.

ODE TO COUNTRY MUSIC

You sang and I heard your song handpicked,
Coating the strings of a guitar, plucked like the sweet stick of a honeysuckle flower.
Yours is the country and western tune,
the music of motion,
Boot soles slapping the ground, forming the upper jaw,
and mouthing with the earth about basic things.
Your sound is circular, like strumming that keeps coming back into itself.

The plucking of the strings makes a strain and a tension that squeaks through my ears
Then tension takes on color
It becomes not sound, but a story.
Come listen to the song and hear the story as told by George Wynn and the Bluegrass Partners at the Children's Center, Tanglewood Park. (In case of rain, it will be held at the Winston-Salem Convention Center.) Keep on the main road through Tanglewood, bear to the right at the train and follow the signs to the Children's Center. Parking will be available near the Barn which is located on the left, just past the Children's Center.

IRS invites students, faculty, and administration to all of the following events scheduled for Friday, April 17 and Saturday, April 18.

Friday — Winston-Salem Convention Center

Featuring: The Flaming Embers and The Persians—8:00 p.m.-1 a.m.

Saturday Afternoon — Children's Center, Tanglewood Park Featuring: George Wynn and the Bluegrass Partners—2 p.m.-5 p.m.

Saturday night — Winston-Salem Convention Center . . . Featuring: The Friends of Distinction and the Virgin Hope—9 p.m.-1 a.m.

Through the courtesy of the Dean of Students, the dorms will not close until 1:30 Friday night and at the usual 2 a.m. hour on Saturday. Tickets covering the twenty-five cents entrance fee to Tanglewood Park will be provided and may be picked up during both lunch periods, Thursday, April 16 and Friday, April 17. This is the only time the tickets will be available so don't forget to come get them.

The following proposal concerning the drinking regulation was passed on March 4, 1970:

Salem College and her students share a common desire to maintain a high standard of personal and group conduct. Whether a student drinks or not is her own choice, but the College prohibits the possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages on the Salem College Campus. (Salem Bypass to Salem Avenue, Bank Street to Central School), except at social functions approved by the faculty Advisory Board. Only beer may be served at these social functions.

The possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages is permitted at off-campus social functions sponsored by a college organization provided that approval is secured from the Faculty Advisory Board. A Salem student is expected to comply with the laws of the State of North Carolina with regard to the possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages. The law allows the possession and consumption of beer, ale, and wine (ABC 18-64) by those people 18 and over, and of other alcoholic beverages ABC Laws 18-60) by those people 21 and over.

Salem students asked for this change in the drinking regulations and for the responsibility, both individual and as a student body which the request entails. A Student-Faculty-Trustee committee and the Board of Trustees granted the request. THEREFORE, IT IS THE STUDENTS' OBLIGATION TO ACCEPT NOT ONLY THE RULE BUT THEIR RESPONSIBILITY TO IT AND TO SALEM COLLEGE.

World Campus Afloat is a college that does more than broaden horizons. It sails to them and beyond.

Again in the 1970-71 academic year, the World Campus Afloat program of Chapman College and its associated Colleges and Universities will take qualified students, faculty and staff into the world laboratory.

Chapman College currently is accepting applications for both the fall and spring semesters. Preliminary applications also may be made for all future semesters.

Shipboard classes are held between ports aboard the s.s. Ryndam which has been equipped with classrooms, laboratories, library, student union, dining room and dormitories.

In-port opportunities, integral to accredited coursework taught aboard ship, add the dimension of on-the-spot field research experience to formal classroom learning.

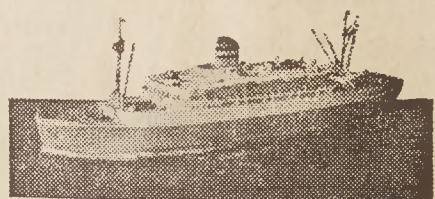

Fall semesters depart New York for port stops in the Mediterranean and Latin America, ending in Los Angeles. Spring semesters circle the world from Los Angeles, stopping in Asia and Africa and ending at New York.
