

The day was a kaleidoscope of
Laughter and youthful cheers
From the afternoon sack races,
To the songs sung by our peers.

Varied events left us breathless,
Too tired to take much more;
But just within the nick of time,
The chef displayed his store!

We hung around and gorged ourselves
On varied gourmet delights;
Then girded our bodies with fine clothes,
And prepared for funny sights.

The skits were very colorful
And tickled all our hearts
With thoughts of mediocrity
In every person's parts!

When all the songs were truly done
We caroused with shouted "dears"
And then carted everyone
To spots to share some beers!

Student Government officers Emily Wood, Fran Hicks, and Dianne Dailey present cake at Founder's Day picnic celebrating two birthdays, Salem's and Dr. Gramley's.

FOUNDERS

DAY

1970

The Salemite

Volume LII

Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., Friday, October 9th, 1970

Number 7

Guess Who's Who's Who!

Justine Blow, Jane Dimmock, Sara Engram, Chris Coile, Dianne Dailey, Fran Hicks, Emily Wood, Mary Leight, and Rebecca McConnaughey will be listed in this year's publication of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES.

Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges has released the names of nine Salem seniors who have been nominated for the honor this year.

Justine Blow, from Smithfield, majors in mathematics and minors in religion. She served as marshal and as treasurer of IRS her junior year. This year she is President of IRS, and a member of Legislative Board, Orientation Committee and SNEA.

Chris Coile is majoring in French and History. She is from Atlanta, Ga. Chris was secretary of YWCA, vice-president of SNEA and Business Manager of Incunabula last year. She is currently a member of Phi Alpha Theta, Honor Society and the Order of the Scorpion, and serves as house president of Strong Dormitory.

Dianne Dailey makes her home in Frankfort, Ky. She is majoring in history with a minor in French. She was vice-president of her sophomore class and secretary of SGA. Dianne is also vice-president of SGA and a member of WRA and Scorpions. An active golfer, "D. Dailey" is Salem's unofficial golf pro.

Jane Dimmock is from McLean, Va. An organ major, she is a Salem Scholar, a member of Honor Society and Copy Editor of The Salemite. Last year she received the President's Prize for the highest Junior average. Jane is assistant organist and choir director at First Presbyterian Church.

From Enterprise, Alabama comes Sara Engram, Editor of The Salemite. She has also served as News Editor and Managing Editor for the newspaper, Student Consultant on the Admissions Committee, and an Oslo Scholar. A religion major with an English minor, she is a Salem Scholar, a member of Phi Alpha Theta, and the Order of the Scorpion. Sara received the President's Prizes in religion and Sophomore English research.

A Sociology major, Fran Hicks, from Waynesville, is minoring in Spanish. This year Fran is President of Student Government. She has also served as Lehman House President, Secretary of the Junior class, marshal and a representative to the Lecture-Assembly Committee.

Mary Leight, from Winston-Salem is a History major with a minor in English. She was vice-president of the Junior class and is currently President of IRC.

Voice major Rebecca McConnaughey from Red Springs was vice-president of Choral Ensemble and an Oslo Scholar. She is Business Manager of Incunabula, a member of the Order of the Scorpion, a member of Assembly Committee, and Chairman of the special sub-committee to study assembly programming.

From Lynchburg, Va., Emily Wood is Chairman of Judicial Board. Emily is a biology major with a minor in English. Last year she was secretary of Judicial Board and received the President's Prize in Biology. Emily is also a member of Honor Society and Order of the Scorpion.

Alumnae Executives Approve Continuation Of Grants, Aids

The Executive Board of the College Alumnae Association, at its meeting on September 24, approved a grant of $3,000 for continuation of the "Summer Sabbatical Leave" program for faculty members . . . The Association also continues its support of the Rondthaler Lectureships program, $500.00; the President's Prizes, $1,000.00; the Katharine Rondthaler Awards, $200.00; the Historical Room in the College Library, $1,200.00; the Art Exhibit program, $1,000.00; the Computer program, $500.00; the Intellectual Involvement of Students program, $500.00; and the General Educational program, $16,569.58.

The Board also approved a grant of $5,500.00 to initiate establishment of what it calls the Dale H. Gramley Fund. The Association's intention is to build this fund to $21,000 or $22,000 over the next several years to provide a President's Contingency Fund for special needs not covered in the normal operating budget of the College . . . The Board also appropriated $1,500.00 toward the cost of publication of a history of Salem Academy and College and $500.00 towards the cost of a new Alumnae Directory to be published in 1972.