

sports spectacular

it ain't pro, but it's all we got!

By Em Lackey

Many of you may have been wondering what goes on down in the gym every Monday and Wednesday night. Ye ole basketball has been getting quite a beating the last three weeks with intramurals going on. Since Salem has stopped participating in intercollegiate sports, it is the hope of all the athletic department that our intramural program will be a success. So far in basketball, the turnout has been great and each team has been well represented.

Monday, February 8, the Babcock Benchwarmers met the Biting Ballhogs at 6:30. The experienced Ballhogs were victorious with a score of 27-6. The scoring was evenly distributed among the Ballhogs with Beth Crawford leading with 12 points, Anne Gelston with 10, Nancy Hunter 6, Nancy Rives 4, and Gayle Evans and Jane Cronly 2 each. Good defensive playing was shown by all with Weezie Vincent, Elizabeth Whittet and Mary Leight sharing honors. The Benchwarmers were led by Janet Ross with 4 points and Gin-Gin Bruce with 2, aided by Lynne Mappus, Cathy Brown, Elsie Fuller and "C. B." Boyce.

The second game that night matched the Gramley Globetrotters with the Clewell Cagers, with the Cagers winning by a score of 14-3. Emily Shearer led the Cagers with 7 points, Effie Little had 4, and Le Newell and Mary DASHILL had 2 each. Margaret Everhart, Brenda Bain, Susan Phillips and Betsy Hester helped their team defensively. The Globetrotters' scoring was rather sporadic with Corinne Little putting the only points on the board for her team, but Marcia McDade, Libby Mauer, Bonnie Clark, Emily McArver, Laura Huddleston, and Jette Wessel kept her company on the court.

The Biting Ballhogs met the Sisters' Swishers February 10 in a very exciting game which saw the Ballhogs walk off the court with another victory of 22-14. Crawford and Gelston led their team with 6 points, followed closely by Hunter and Rives with 4 each, and Cronly with 2. The Swishers were led by Em Lackey with 13 points, followed by Anne Moore Butzner with 1, but Cindy Babb, Nancy Nelson and Margaret McCloy all played a fine game.

At 7:30 that night the Clewell Cagers played the Sophomore Dribblers who won by a score of 18-2. Mary Ann Campbell was the Cagers' only scorer. The experienced Ruth Powell, who broke her ankle last year in practice, led her team with 10 points, followed by Lisa Herron and Sue Carter (two more pros) with 4 points each. Mary Murrill and Sally McMurdo assisted their teammates in the victory.

Wednesday night, February 17, the Babcock Benchwarmers played the Sisters' Swishers in what Miss Johnston called the best game yet.

The final score was 23-16 with the Swishers victorious. The hot hands of Anna Moore Butzner led the Swishers with 11 points, followed by Lackey with 10 and McCloy with 3. C. Babb and N. Nelson were the playmakers. Kathy Roberson helped the Benchwarmers with 9 points, L. Mappus and J. Ross with 3 each, and C. B. Boyce with 2, aided by the quick hands of teammates E. Fuller and C. Kitchin.

The second game that night was played by Gramley and the Sophomore Dribblers with the Dribblers again victorious by a score of 22-9. Ruth Powell again led her team in the scoring with 13 points. Sue Carter had 5, and Lisa Herron and Mary Murrill had 2 each. Sally McMurdo, Catherine Cooper, and Sarah Dorrier helped in the ball handling, trying to keep it out of the hands of Corinne Little who scored 5 points for the Globetrotters and McDade and Marsh who scored 2 each.

The Ballhogs were handed another victory February 22, when they beat the Cagers 26-8. Nancy Hunter and Dianne Dailey led the Ballhogs in the scoring with 8 points each, aided by N. Rives with 6 and B. Crawford with 4. The Cagers were led by their captain, Effie Little, who scored 6 points, with M. Everhart and E. Shearer scoring one apiece.

The second game of the night saw the Sophomore Dribblers walk off with another victory, this time over the Babcock Benchwarmers, by a score of 34-6. The Dribblers' scoring was superior, with Lisa Herron aceing 18 points, Ruth Powell 10, and Sue Carter and Sarah Dorrier 2 apiece. Lynne Mappus scored 2 for her team as did K. Roberson; however, one of Roberson's goals went to the Dribblers for she was addled, and shot the ball into the Dribbler's goal. Well, that's all in the Game! It added a little bit of excitement to the evening.

Basketball games slated for the rest of the season are as follows:

- Mon. Mar. 1
6:30 Babcock Benchwarmers vs. Clewell Cagers
7:30 Sophomore Dribblers vs. Biting Ballhogs
- Wed. Mar. 3
6:30 Sisters' Swishers vs. Gramley Globetrotters
- Mon. Mar. 8
6:30 Sophomore Dribblers vs. Sisters' Swishers
7:30 Babcock Benchwarmers vs. Gramley Globetrotters

By Patti Pig

"... grumble-rumble, grazzle-razzle, blabble-crabble, uck, uck, uck..."

Those are the moans of the Grumblegrunk, terror of February. His rotten spirit can make us cut even more classes, forget to wash our jeans, curse getting up even at 10:00, and—worst of all—snarl at our buddies. (I personally find that I bare my cuspid at a higher percentage of people in February than in any other month.)

Oh, the February meanies are everywhere. Their turned-up noses and turned-down jowls can be seen in every mirror on campus. The Grumblegrunks are you and me (particularly). We must conquer them with the only possible weapon: Love! Good, old-fashioned slobbery love. It's quite simple, I think. We'll just put our mirrors in the drawers and take a look at each other. Can you imagine what it would be like if everyone on campus loved each other for a whole day?

In order to find out what it'd be like, I hereby, therefore, and without further delay, declare Sunday, February 28th (being the last and, of course, worst day of the month) Love Thy Grump Day. Everyone will be required to wear a smile to dinner. Violators will be sent to Dean J. (originator of the Art of Loving Grumps and The Like), who will subject the grouch to a grueling session of smiles, laughter, and good sense.

It should be a blissful day. I'll see you at dinner, if I can get up in time.

The Grumblegrunk

Reed & Barton Silver Contest Now In Progress

During the months of February and March, Reed & Barton, America's oldest major silversmiths, are conducting a "Silver Opinion Competition" in which valuable scholarships totalling $2500 are being offered to duly enrolled women students at a few selected colleges and universities.

Salem has been selected to enter this Competition in which the First Grand Award is a $1,000 scholarship; Second Grand Award is a $500 scholarship; Third Grand Award is a $300 scholarship; and Seven Grand Awards of $100 each scholarships. In addition, there will be 100 other awards consisting of sterling silver, fine china and crystal with a retail value of approximately $75.

In the 1971 "Silver Opinion Competition", an entry form illustrates twelve designs of sterling with eight designs of both china and crystal. The entrants simply list the three best combinations of sterling, china, and crystal from the patterns illustrated. Scholarships and awards will be made to those entries matching or coming closest to the unanimous selections of Table-setting editors from three of the nation's leading magazines.

Donna Daisley is the Student Representative who is conducting the "Silver Opinion Competition" for Reed & Barton at Salem. Those interested in entering the "Silver Opinion Competition" should contact Donna at 213 Gramley for entry blanks and for complete details concerning the Competition rules. She also has samples of 12 of the most popular Reed & Barton designs so that entrants can see how these sterling patterns actually look.

Through the opinions of silver design expressed by college women competing for these scholarships, Reed & Barton hopes to compile a valuable library of expressions of young American taste.

Coffee Shop

Salem C's latest attraction has great prospects of being a big success! "Ye Olde Coffee Shoppe" not only claims better coffee and better prices, but has fulfilled its promises. At 10¢ a cup and a nicker for refills (plus fresh donuts—5¢ each—for plain, lemon, AND raspberry) you can drink coffee and talk as long as your time and money hold out!

If you still haven't been, try it! Hours are from 9-12, Monday through Saturday at the Student Center. With increased support and interest, who knows what could happen?!? . . . increased hours, cokes, sandwiches, maybe even hamburgers! So go!

Take some time out, enjoy a "cuppacoffee", talk awhile, maybe even shoot some pool.

Faculty, you are invited and welcome, too!

NEW MANAGEMENT

Walk to the

PETER PAN RESTAURANT

On

S. Marshall St.

Mon. - Fri.
7 A.M. - 8 P.M.

Sat.
8 A.M. - 8 P.M.

Breakfast

Lunch

Dinner

A FUN PLACE TO GO
Old Salem Reception Center

Thruway Shopping Center

Dial 725-8519

Dead Battery — Flat Tire
No Gas
Free Road Service

FOR
Salem Students
At

SOUTH MARSHALL ESSO

600 S. Marshall & Academy

722-4661

723-7530

788-8831

2¢ discount per gallon of gas to students and faculty with identification or double green stamps.