Tennis, Golf, and Hockey Are Here

NEW COURTS

Come on down — the new courts are open. Van Sumner has done a great job providing us with six more courts. However, they need to be broken in, so all you avid tennis players make your way down to test them out. They are made of a surface called "Lay-kold" and are softer than the old ones. Here are a few requests we are making to keep the courts in good playing condition.

1. People entering the courts must wear a smooth sole tennis shoe. Footmats are at the gate entrances to prevent rocks from getting on the playing surface. Wipe your feet.

2. In order to prevent pulling the net posts, after playing be sure to release the tension of the net. Do not adjust the center straps, but release the tension by lowering the net via flipping the catch on the handle of the left net post.

3. Metal rackets should be equipped with a plastic guard on the frame to prevent cutting or scraping the surface on a low ground stroke. These may be purchased at Bocock-Stroud for $1.00.

Thanks for cooperating and have a good match.

GOLF

Salem College has started a golf program in which players go to Grandview Golf Course and play nine holes of golf every Wednesday. We've gone for the past five weeks and have had so much fun. There has been a lot of student response, but we will gladly welcome any new faces.

As a special attraction, several of our faculty members who play golf are joining us in a Student-Faculty Golf Day. This date is Wednesday, 13 November. If you would like to play in this — just for fun — please see Roxanne Hicklin or Miss Woodward as soon as possible.

TENNIS TOURNAMENTS

The Class Singles Tennis Tournaments finished up with winners from the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes. The final games were held on the new courts with Miss Woodward giving the trophies to both winner and runner-up. Bett White played Kathy Fant for the Freshman finals, with Bett winning 6-2, 6-1. Sally Hall and Patrice Mann competed for Sophomore honors, with Sally winning 6-3, 6-3. Lucy vs Lucy was the match for the Juniors. Miss Lane defeated Miss Rose 6-1, 6-1. Thanks to all the participants and spectators for your support. I hope you enjoyed it. We look forward to seeing all of you come out for the tennis team in the spring. For now, look towards Basketball to keep in shape.

HOCKEY TEAM

Remember the "puck pushers" (or actually ball pushers) mentioned in last week's paper? Well, the victorious action has come alive with the Field Hockey Team winning their first two games and tying their third. We "rolled in" to Danville to greet matching tunics and half of a field. Averette donned pennies while we tried to cut our sticks down to half power. Kathy Watkinson and Lucy Lane managed to slip a couple past Averette's goalie, so we said good bye to the tacky, twinsky tunics with the 2-0 victory supporting us. We left our mark at Hardee's and bumped down the road in our school van.

Tackle Guilford we did with stunning stickwork, daring dodges, fantastic flicks, super-doooper scoops, and pushy passes. Kathy Watkinson stole the show with four goals to her credit — Lucy Lane sending in the fifth. Guilford's Hardee's was the lucky place to get our business this time. With the manager being so nice, we were stuffed in no time and moving down the road in our caravan of the tank, the "cadillac" of school cars, and the yellow bird.

The team next went to battle on home ground against Averette. Much to our surprise, the spectators were overwhelming. We had never before had such support. Keep it up — we love it. Lucy Lane whacked in our only goal of the game, with their center forward breaking into the open to score their one for the afternoon. Hang in there defense — it was the first of the season, and hopefully the last score against us. The refectory took care of the chow for both teams, serving ice cream and chocolate sauce — our favorites. Thanks for your support, Ted.

Check the schedule in your dorm for our next game. Come give us a cheer.

Inter-Varsity Is Alive On Campus

By Pat Hall

What does it mean? Who's it for? What does it do? Three important questions when trying to evaluate a club on campus. Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship — you heard about it at the SGA meeting. Something about a constitution. Well, the constitution needs to be passed by the student body. That's you and me. And when we make a decision we should be well informed. Hopefully this article will help to make aware to each and everyone of us what InterVarsity is and has to offer.

Physically, it is a group of girls on this campus that have joined together for Christian fellowship and growth. Evangelism, mission, and discipleship are three important words in its structure. Sounds rather heavy, but actually is really down to earth. The group seeks to develop, deepen, and strengthen their faith in Jesus Christ and their lives through study of the Bible and prayer. As Christians we experience the love of God through fellowship and worship.

What does all this mean to you? It means that here on campus you have the opportunity to participate in Christian fellowship. This may prove to be a rewarding experience to you. These meetings are open to everyone: the group is interdenominational and welcomes all (including interested faculty members). Campus chapter meetings are every other Tuesday at 7:00 on the third floor of the library. All interested persons meet together to sing, share, introspect on some topic, and pray. Often speakers bring the message or a program is prepared by several students.

InterVarsity offers a lot outside of the big meetings. Bible studies are held in each dorm one evening a week. In Bitting dorm the study is led by Sarah Tucker on Thursdays at 10:00. In Babcock, Linda Joynes begins that one at 10:00 on Thursdays. Carey Baumgarten in Clewell gets that one moving at 10:00 on Thursdays too. Gramley has two: one on Monday night at 10:00 led by Kit Lombard and one on Thursday night at 10:00 led by Lucy Rose.

Dick Nangel, who is our Inter-Varsity staff member, leads a Bible study on alternating Tuesdays and Wednesdays on the third floor of the library and Alumnae House respectively. A prayer meeting is held every Thursday in the chapel at 1:15 for general prayer during the day. This allows a time to come before the Lord with any problems one might have. Prayer Breakfasts are due to start up again soon. Those that participated last year can tell you what a great way it is to start the day. Also, an InterVarsity song group has started up to sing and share Christian music. It meets Thursday night at 8:00 in the chapel.

If you have any questions about InterVarsity that you would like answered, below are listed the officers at the present time. Any of them will be happy to talk with you. President — Sandy Downing; Vice-President — Ann Rankin; Secretary — Carol Barnhardt; Treasurer — Kit Lombard; Outreach Chairperson—Carey Baumgarten; Action Group Coordinator —Betsy Roberts; Program Chairperson—Patt Hall.

Think about what this club has to offer to this campus. You can be a part of it. Do join us for the activity that you like best. Check our sign in the refectory for activity times and dates.
