Candidates

SGA President Katie Davis reminds students that presidential candidates will be on campus to be interviewed during the next three to four weeks. Executive Board will be participating in the interviews as student representatives. Any student input is welcome.

If there are any specific questions you are concerned about, contact Katie Davis (725-7277), Jessica Foy (725-7417), Jennifer Ingram (725-7415), Suzanne Gallimore (725-7150), Judy Watson (748-8600), or Liz Denton (725-7680).

Names of the candidates should be kept confidential so as not to jeopardize their present-held positions.

Transcripts

All students who need transcripts for job applications, graduate school, or transferring should notify the registrar's office two to three days in advance. Persons receiving transcripts for the first time will be charged no fee, but a $1 fee will be charged for each additional transcript.

Room Drawing

Juniors, sophomores and freshmen will soon draw for their rooms for the 1982-83 school year.

The following dates have been set for room drawing: singles and triples, Friday, April 2; seniors, Tuesday, April 7; juniors, Wednesday, April 8; sophomores, Thursday, April 9. All room drawings will take place from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Lehman Hall.

A non-refundable reservation fee of $250 must be paid by April 1 to the college treasurer. A student will not be allowed to participate in room drawing until the fee has been paid.

Presently, the student body is involved in a voting process which will decide whether a student can keep the room which she now lives in for the following year.

Students are urged to make the necessary plans concerning rooms and roommates as soon as possible.

Security Tips

Rape is a serious crime which can happen to anyone, anytime, anywhere, reports the N.C. Governor's Crime Commission.

In case of rape or sexual assault, follow these guidelines provided by the N.C. Governor's Crime Commission:

- If you decide to report the crime, do so as soon as possible after the rape.

- Do not change clothes. Get to the emergency room immediately so that evidence can be obtained. Medical care is very important.

- Do not hesitate to seek assistance through the Rape Victim Assistance Program, Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, Raleigh.

- Questions or additional information on rape crisis centers contact: N.C. Council on the Status of Women, 526 N. Wilmington St., Raleigh, N.C., 27611.
