

Larnie Yuson, Cary Hodges, Kristan Majors, Adam Steiner, Mika Fujimoto and Heather Carlin take in the sights during a three-week tour of Austria and Germany. Photo donated by Kristan Majors.

Students Tour Germany, Austria

by Kristin Majors

January 7, 1993 marked the beginning of a three week trip through Germany and Austria for seven Salem students and the German professor, Adam Steiner.

The seven troopers were Heather Carlin, Mika Fujimoto, Ann Greene, Cary Hodges, Kristan Majors, Merideth Waltzek, and Larnie Yuson.

The trip began in Munich, Germany where the students spent eight days. They then moved on to a three day visit to Salzburg, Austria, and ended with eight days in Vienna, Austria.

Shopping, German beer, art museums, operas, ballets, discotheques, and castles were highlights of the trip. Besides the aching feet, the food differences, the language barrier, and the never-ending bags of luggage, the trip proved to be not only an educational experience, but also a memorable one.

Everyone is encouraged to stop one of the world travelers and see just what they have to say about the excursion.

Salem Down Under

by Elizabeth Marslender and Rebecca Grubbs

Every year Salem College offers a variety of trips for students during January Term. One of the trips this past January that students had the opportunity to go to Australia. Because the last trip to Australia two years ago was such a hit, the course was offered again. The ages of the students who attended the trip ranged from freshmen to continuing education students.

The main purpose of the trip "down under" was to educate students about Australia and its culture. One of the students, Nina Byrne said, "It was the experience of a lifetime and I recommend it to anybody who gets the opportunity." Some of the highlights of the trip included climbing Ayers Rock, spending time in the Outback with the Aborigines, snorkling on the Great Barrier Reef, and a night of culture in Sydney at the famous Opera House.

The following students participated in the trip: Elizabeth Marslender, Rebecca Grubbs, Brooke Smith, Marcy Knight, Nina Byrne, Ashley Poston, Anne Redding, Elizabeth Craig, Melissa Brown, Brennan Taylor, Alice Peschl, Joanne Amos, Britt Lawrence, Katherine Edwards, Karen Marstin, Shan Woolard, Jennifer Pratt, Courtney Shore, Molly Gano, Mona Elkban, and the professor who took the students was Dr. Baker.

Quotable Quotes

by Anna Mansfield

- Little girls shouldn't treat / Little boys they happen to meet / Like little Gods.
- Nothing's real and there's nothing to get hung about.
--The Beatles
- Re-examine all that you have been told--dismiss that which insults your soul.
--Whitman
- Don't just do something, stand there. --Buddha
- Those of us that used to be babies have got to stick together.
- Things are more like they are now than they ever were before.
--Kesler

SEVEN WAYS TO SAVE THE RAIN FOREST

1. Don't buy tropical wood; use alternatives.
2. Tell the World Bank to stop rainforest-killing activities.
3. Boycott Mitsubishi, one of the largest rainforest destroyers in the world.
4. Support grassroots groups working in rainforest countries.
5. Write to the Secretary General of the United Nations asking for a special session on tropical rainforest relief.
6. Don't eat rainfoest beef.
7. Become a member of Salem Women for the Rainforest.

For more information, call English Supplies.

The Salemite Staff

Editor-in-Chief

Lisa Findlay

Assistant Editor

Amy Woodard

Layout Editor

Anna Mansfield

Photography Editor

Meredith Snellings

Copy Editors

Deanna Bass, Elizabeth Bolton

Cartoonist

Raymond Six

Contributing Writers

Cindie Burnette; Lisa Findlay; Amy Woodard; Mary Barclay Churchill; Rebecca Grubbs; Stephanie Peede; Kristan Majors; Anna Mansfield; Adeola Osobu; Michelle Willabus; Lyn Marino; Andrea Dixon; Robin Wilson; Deana Bass; Meredith Snellings

Typists

Pamela Butts; Amy Woodard; Lisa Findlay

Layout:

Anna Mansfield; Lisa Findlay; Amy Woodard