CHAPEL PROGRAMS

The tenth grade gave the chapel program Tuesday, April 18. The Bible was read by Penetta Murray. The program was devoted entirely to the "dignified" seniors. Lillie Mae Smith gave an inspiring talk "The Seniors as the Juniors see Them" Reba Manning's talk applied to the word "Senior". She thoroughly defined the word. Irene Renfrow gave a piece of sound advice to the seniors.

Tuesday April 25, the ninth grade had charge of the chapel program. Vernon Finch read the devotional part of the program. The whole program was devoted to singing joyous songs. We sang quite a number of songs. Although the program consisted of only singing, it was thoroughly enjoyed.

"SENIORS" AS THE WORD IMPLIES

"In analyzing the word "Senior" I find that to be called a senior means more than designating one who is in the eleventh grade and about to be graduated from high school. Have you ever stopped to think just what the word means can mean, and ought to mean? Let us analyze you as seniors by letters. Each letter stands for a characteristic.

"S", the first letter, of course, to you may mean "superior", "supreme", or "superiority", but we like to take the high-mindedness away and let it mean "sedateness". This word signifies dignity, calmness, loftiness, and serenity.

"E" is for everlasting energy both physically and mentally.
