WHAT BAILEY SCHOOL NEEDS

If you had a million dollars what would you give to Bailey School? More books- more magazines- more laboratory equipment- song books and a thousand other things. You haven't a million and I haven't a million but you can give. We can give to Bailey High School what it needs above every thing else- A School Spirit- a real live spirit- a spirit that will make us play-work-together and feel that Bailey School is a good place to spend eight hours out of every day. Bailey School wants to wake up again-. Put your spirit behind it.

P.T.A. SHOWS A NEW SPIRIT

The newly organized P.T.A. met Thursday Night, Nov. 9 and due to well planned and helpful program the new spirit, and the number of parents present, the meeting very much enjoyed.

AGRICULTURE CLASS VISITS

State Fair

The agriculture boys of Bailey School planned a trip to the State Fair. The date set to go was Oct. 13, 1933. Everett Lamm was selected to carry us. He was at the school house at 8:30 o'clock. Oscar Pearson, chairman, of the committee called out the names of the one's that had paid and as he called the name the boy got on the truck. We loaded in 10 minutes and went to Middlesex, The Y.T.H.F. there did the same thing. There were 80 boys on the truck. We left Middlesex at 9:30 o'clock.

The first stop after we left Middlesex was at State College where we had our pictures made. There were two different pictures. The first picture was of the groups sitting on the steps of Patterson Hall. The other picture was all the boys standing on the truck. We stay there 45 minutes. It took an hour to get to the fair grounds and park. It was then 11:00 o'clock and we unloaded to see the fair.

Unloading from the truck at the state fair we went into the cow barn. There we saw cows of all the different types and kinds,

On leaving the cow barn we visited the poultry house in which we saw all kinds of fowls from bantams to turkeys. We went from the poultry house to the main exhibit hall where many important and interesting exhibits were to be seen. We saw exhibits from all over North Carolina line. (Cont. on second page)
