HIGH SCHOOL

Eunice Peele

To help promote the work of the Radio Council of Nash County every school in the county has a key radio teacher. This teacher together with her committee acts as a guide for students radio listening. The Radio Committee of Bailey High School, Mrs May, and Miss Charleston, is encouraging the use of radio as a means of education by presenting on a bullet board the best programs on the air each day. Each person of the committee has a special job and one has bulletin board up-to-date.
