

THE FOURTEEN MISTAKES OF LIFE

- To expect to set up our own standard of right and wrong and expect everybody to conform to it.
- To try to measure the enjoyment of others by our own.
- To expect uniformity of opinion in this world.
- To look for judgment and experience in youth.
- To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.
- Not to yield in unimportant trifles.
- To look for perfection in our own actions.
- To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.
- Not to alleviate if we can all that needs alleviation.
- Not to make allowances for the weaknesses of others.
- To consider anything impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.
- To believe only what our finite mind can grasp.
- To live as if the moment, the time, the day were so important that it would live forever.
- To estimate people by some outside quality, for it is that within that makes the man.

an idea. The books in the library are always willing and waiting for your use. Not only that but if you are not going to school the library will further your education. The library is always at your service and as the old saying goes "Service with a smile."

But of all the idiotic things to do in a library is to loaf. So therefore it will pay you to remember the various uses of all libraries.

SPORTS

And girls, wonder how soon you will be letting your school down. Here's our best wishes that you will continue successful playing instead of starting out losing games. Do you suppose you can?

Let's let our future games be more successful and thrilling than ever.
