

The Past Comes To Date
CLASS OF '29

JAMES GLOVER

James attended Appalachian State Teacher's College and did graduate work at Carolina. Afterwards he taught school and coached athletics for two years at Whitakers, N. C.

He married Mable Dabbs. Jimmy, Patricia, and Linda are their children.

For twelve years he has been Sup. of Public Welfare in Nash County.

He has played an outstanding part in church and civic affairs. At present he is head of the alumni association of Appalachian State Teacher's College and International Counselor of Lions International.

He and his family reside in Nashville, N. C.

EDWARD COZART

After graduation Ed worked for B. F. Medford in Bailey. In '36 he started his own business, Ed's 5¢ to $5 Store, Bailey. A few years later he married Janie Stott. He is the father of one child, Andra, age 4. In '43 he entered the navy and served for two years.

Inez Bissette, Kathrine

Bissette, James Finch, Mrs. Minnie Bell Finch Morgan, Mrs. Lola Lamm Mayo, and Willie Iris Perry were not heard from.

BAILEY THEATRE
Always The Best
In Entertainment
LEADING PICTURES
FOR THE COMING MONTH

THE EGG & I
.....
FOXES OF HARROW
.....
DARK PASSAGE
.....
FOREVER AMBER
.....
ROMANCE OF
.....
ROSYRIDGE
.....
SLAVE GIRL

Everyone
Will Haste
To Get

That Taste
of Clyde's

QUALITY ICE CREAM
28 Different Flavors

Wilson N.C. Highway 30-1