

Illness Increases Absentees

During the month of March, records show that the sophomores and seniors had the majority of absentees because of sickness.

Miss Rebecca Tomlinson, senior sponsor, and Lucinda Stott were absent because of a gland infection, and Beverly Tapp with measles.

Absent from the sophomore A class were Lois Thigpen and Ann Johnson with measles, Rudolph Manning with mumps, and Harvey Denton with sore throat.

The juniors, freshman boys and girls, and sophomore B class reported that none of their absentees were due to sickness.

F.H.A.'s Hear Talks By Vocation Representatives

Vocations was the theme of the March program of the Future Homemakers.

Doris Murray, Judy Finch, and Barbara Nell Lamm, program committee, invited a registered nurse, Miss Mary Lou Davis; a secretary, Mrs. Maggie Lamm; a teacher, Miss Edith Farmer; and a homemaker, Mrs. Rupert Perry, to discuss their vocations. Each one told of the advantages, advancements, and requirement for her chosen vocation.

At the close of the meeting each guest was presented a box of note paper or soap by the F. H. A. Chapter.

Judging Team Visits Fat Stock Show

Jerry Horton, Jennings Nixon, C. D. Mullen, and Tommy Glover, cattle and hog judging team, attended the annual Fat Stock Show held in Farmer's Warehouse in Rocky Mount, April 5.

"To let the boys get an idea of what to expect in the Federation Contest, to be held the latter part of April, and do a little practice judging is the motive for attending this show," related John H. Wells, agriculture teacher.
