Themes Climax Unit

Seniors completed their unit on Shakespeare by writing on subjects relating to ideas acquired from the study of Macbeth and two additional Shakespearean plays read.

The papers that were considered best were written by Catherine Brown, Sarah Peele, Reba Whitley, Gene Finch, Ruth Williams, and Doris Joyner.

Odds And Ends

(As gleaned by Doris Joyner)

IMAGINATION!!!

While criticizing the ads in the Bugle, Mrs. Farmer remarked, "What a lovely sweater! Can't you just see the shades of blue?" To which Eunice Perry replied, "I see shades of red."

THANKS!!!

One morning when Mack Lamm unloaded bus No. 88 at the school door, Harvey Denton exclaimed, "Thanks, Mack, I'll remember you the rest of my life for this---at least a few days!"

SCIENCE???

Can anyone tell Mrs. Lasiter and the third period typing class whether the thermometer was discovered or invented?

MISTAKES!!!

After Miss Farmer graded one of Dwight Glover's math papers in which a low grade was made, Dwight said, "Miss Farmer, everyone of these problems I reworked came out right."

"I guess so," exclaimed Miss Farmer, "I graded your paper by a different test!"

OUT OF SEASON!!!

As I was standing in Mrs. Underwood's room the other day a green snake gingerly poked his head out of a crack in the wall. Mrs. Underwood seized the snake, pulled it out of the wall, and thrust it into a small jar.

REMINDER

Let this Christmas of 51 be a time to remember and make it the most festive and happiest occasion you have ever had.
