

Seniors Lead In Honor Grades

A LAUGH

That seniors have the largest number of honor roll grades was proved on October 20--report card day.

They led with a top score of six. These were ANN JOHNSON, FRANCES CARROLL, FANNIE LOU MANNING, JAN PERRY, MARY ANN EDWARDS, and CLARA LOU STOTT.

RENA BISSETTE, JOYCE WILLIAMS, WORTH WALKER, LAMAR FINCH, and JACKIE BRAGG failed to make honor roll grades by having one B plus each.

RAEFORD PERRY, a junior, ended up with all A's except a B plus.

From Ben Wethington's sophomore class FRANCES JACKSON and JEAN WELLS failed to reach honor roll grades by having one B each.

BILLIE FAYE PERRY was the only one from Miss Idalia Oglesby's sophomores who achieved the honor goal, but MARLENE EATMON was behind with only one B plus.

the sun rise over the great Smokies. Some may think this excursion foolish but others who appreciate the mysterious beauty of nature will realize its enchantment.

My job with the summer theatre in Cherokee was definately a milestone in my theatre career. The theatre world with its fascinating people, its dynamic teachings of humanity, and its make believe is and will always be my love.

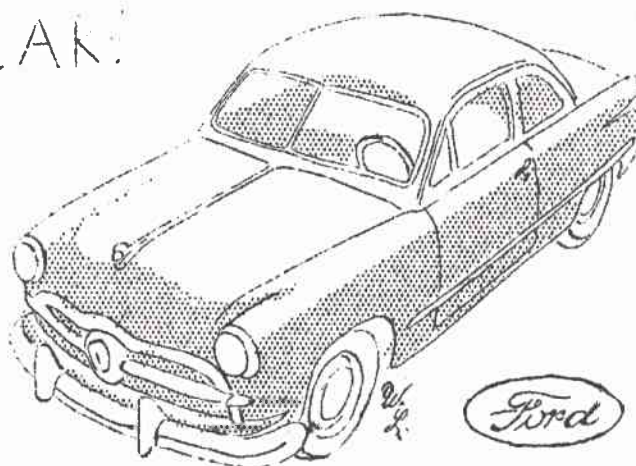

honor roll were KATHRYNE WHITLEY and SYLVIA VICK, while ELSIE EATMON came in closely with one B plus.

Freshman boys had one student who very near made the honor roll, CHARLES VICK; he had one B.

While studying the French and Indian War in U. S. A. history class, WAYNE LAIM and MISS OGLESBY had a slight misunderstanding. ANN EARP remarked to VIVIAN GLOVER, "What is this, QUEEN OGLESBY'S and KING WAYNE'S WAR?"
