NO TELLING WHAT

The Journalism Class
Bailey High School

Mrs. Farmer
Mrs. Lassiter

Let me take this opportunity to thank you for the splendid cooperation you extended me by helping prepare the program for the banquet presented at the lodge hall last week. The assistance rendered in mimeographing letters and copies of the program was truly far-reaching in that these letters and programs caused this occasion to be much more successful. I want to say that much favorable comment has been made about the neatness and quality of your work.

Extend my thanks to those wonderful teachers, Mrs. Farmer and Mrs. Lassiter, under whose watchful eyes and instruction you were enabled to do so well.

As a token of my appreciation, please accept the enclosed currency to be placed in your treasury to be used where you wish.

Appreciatively yours,

Willis Finch, Master
Bailey Lodge No. 411
A F & A M
Bailey, North Carolina

(It is thoughtfulness of this type that adds zest to the heavy work required in publishing a paper. The enclosed "currency" was a $5 bill that will be used by the class on its trip to the Press Convention. Many thanks. THE EDITOR)

A LAUGH

While waiting in lunch line, WAYNE LAMB asked, "What's holding it up?" SHIRLEY WEBB came back with "the hot dog roll is holding up the wiener."
