

District Rally In Fuquay Springs, Oct. 10

Initiation Of Freshmen Oct. 1

Miss Wilson Offering Adult Courses

Subjects of interest to adult homemakers will be offered to adults of the community each Tuesday evening, starting October 13, announces Miss Frances Wilson, home economics instructor.

Classes, beginning at 7:30 P.M. each Tuesday, will be in the home economics department.

TOPICS

Topics already scheduled are "Home Freezing," "Party Refreshments," and "Shortcuts in Sewing". Others of interest to the group will be added.

Miss Wilson urges all interested to enroll in these classes.

FHA Picks Cotton To Increase Treasury

As a means of making money for the local FHA chapter, president Patricia Dew announces that the members picked cotton Saturday, September 24.

A number of the girls were in the picking race. A prize awaited the girl having the largest number of pounds of cotton at the end of the day, Patricia reported.

President Presents Fall Work At F H A

Naming of committees and making plans for the fall activities consumed most of the business hour of the first FHA meeting, presided over by the new president, Patricia Dew.

COMMITTEES

The president named the following chairmen for standing and special committees:

PROGRAM...Elsie Ray Eatmon
FINANCE....Rebecca Jo Lamm
DEGREES.....Sonja Lamm
SOCIAL.....Jane Burgess
HANDBOOK.....Fivian Glover
INITIATION...Amy Lou Horton

Judy Lamm was elected as historian for the chapter and will serve as chairman of the scrapbook committee.

Initiation for freshmen was announced for October 1, followed by a weiner roast for all FHA members, that night.

Another item of business passed by the group was that the chapter charter a bus to go to the State Fair again this year.

Chapter mothers elected by the group were Mrs. J. E. Edwards, Mrs. Rupert Perry, Mrs. Willis Farmer, Mrs. John Wells, and Mrs. B. C. Boykin.

A short program on "Degrees of Achievement" was given by Elsie Ray Eatmon and Sonja Lamm.

Members Attend Rally

State president, Jean Faulkner of Red Oak, will preside at the District IV FHA Rally in Fuquay Springs, October 10.

Miss Wilson, adviser, reports that a number from the Bailey chapter expect to go to the rally.

For The New LOOK

IN HAIR STYLE, VISIT

Lillian's
Beauty Shop

BAILEY, N. C. PHONE 3061